

SAINT PATRICKS DAY HAILED BY IRISH

Have you noticed the unusual amount of green on the campus today? These "wearers of the green" are Irish and are proud of it. Today is St. Patrick's day and the patriotic Irish all over the world are wearing the green in honor of the birthday of the patron saint of Ireland who was, nevertheless, born in Scotland.

If you should ask some of these students who claim to be Irish, "who was St. Patrick," you would probably get several amusing answers. Some of them would probably tell you that St. Patrick charmed all of the snakes of Ireland with his music and led them out of Ireland into the ocean. Because of his popularity many legends have sprung up about St. Patrick much on the order of the one above. Whether or not there is any truth in the legends no one knows. The only recorded facts about St. Patrick are that he was a devout Christian and christianized Ireland.

Perhaps you have been wondering what connection the emblem of Ireland, the Shamrock, had with St. Patrick, and why it is connected with St. Patrick's Day. St. Patrick is supposed to have selected the shamrock as the emblem of Ireland because the three leaves were symbolic of the Trinity.

Many students in Longview High say that they are part Irish, but no one stated that he is full-blooded Irish. Some of those who are part Irish are: Helen Martin, Mamie Lee Erwin, Billie Katherine Ferguson, Barbara Nelson, Malcolm Elliott, Elizabeth Pearce, Hazel McCann, Judy Lyle, Robert Grimes, Marguerite Beasley, Corrine Toews, Coleen Grant, Patricia Witt, and Roy Edwards.

Coleen Grant boasts that her name is Irish and that in Irish "Coleen" means "my little sweetheart."

The Scotch and the Irish seem to be closely related, since most everyone claims to be "Scotch-Irish," but there must be some big difference, because, when asked if she were Irish, Ernestine Wilson hotly exclaimed, "No, I am Scotch. Can't you tell it?"

On checking up on the birthdays of the students, it was found that Robert Hamilton is the only student who was born on St. Patrick's Day.

Band Receives First Honors In Marching And Sight Reading

Longview students and band secured many honors and trophies at the Texas School Music Competition Festival of district four held here, Saturday, March 10 and 11.

Approximately 3,000 students, representing 32 East Texas high school bands from 30 counties, were brought to Longview to compete for music ratings in concert, sight reading, marching, vocal, and instrumental contests in solo, ensemble, orchestral and choral grouping.

Certificates were awarded Saturday night to those receiving ratings and trophies, and medals will be awarded those who were ranked in the first two divisions.

Ratings are given in the same manner that grades are given. It is possible for several competing organizations to make a rating of I and also possible that not any receive such a high rating if the performances are poor.

Longview students and band received honors as follows:

First rating by the band in marching and sight reading; girl's chorus; Dale Stämper, French horn; Grant Donaldson, cornet; Algie Glover, trombone; cornet trios; Jack Smaha, Saxophone; Kimbrew Carson, drum major.

Second ratings went to the band in concert; to Bobby Johnson, bass horn solo; Eunice Parker, cornet; James Kelly and Billy Curry, cornets in class II; clarinet quartets; woodwind quintets, Paul D. Miller, Oboes; Billy Calloway, bass clarinet; Monte Dhoogen, snare drum; J. D. Johnstone, baritone; cornet trios, class II; Ernestine Ashworth and Mary Elinor Jensen, soprano solos; Dorothy Jane Rawlinson, Billie Sue Ayres, Jane Wood, and Judy Lyle, in twirling; bands class B; Junior high in class E.

Third rating went to George Freeman bass horn solos; Bobby Mickle and Glenna Wilson, cornets; Woodwind quintets; Marston Speight, B.

WILL SING IN CONTEST

Juanita Newman, a voice pupil of Mrs. W. Millar Brown will enter the district voice contest which will be held in Athens.

1000 SCHOOL OFFICERS MEET HERE APRIL 7-8

JESSE JAMES RIDES AGAIN IN L. H. S.

Jesse James rides again! During the showing of "Jesse James" all the girl's hearts did a "Hold Tight" every time Tyrone Power robbed a bank or romanced with Nancy Kelly. But could you guess that the cast of "Jesse James" is walking around in Longview High? Sure enough, the good looking "Ty" is here with his girl friend "Zee".

If you haven't recognized them in your classes, the cast is just below: Jesse James—Bob Smith. He was chosen for the outlaw because of his resemblance to Tyrone.

Frank James—A coin was tossed to decide whether E. C. Johnston should have this part because of his southern drawl or Tommy Anderson because of his tobacco chewing ability. Zee—Isabell James. The resemblance to Nancy Kelly won Isabell this part.

Bob Ford the villain—J. E. Warr. Reasons for this will be withheld.

Mr. McCoy—Roy Edwards. Roy got this for his fast talking.

"Pinkie"—Morris Newham. Morris is called "smut" by all of his pals; therefore a better "Pinkie" could not be found.

Uncle Rufe—Hardy Miller. His screaming ability won Hardy this place.

Mrs. Daniels (formerly Mrs. James, mother of Jesse) Katie Mae Perkins. Please do not be offended Katie.

Will Wright—the jilted boy friend of Zee's—J. V. Florey. He's tall, blond and handsome.

Gladewater To See "Yaller Squares"

The Gregg County one act play contest will be presented tonight at the Gladewater High School at eight o'clock.

The one act play which Longview will present is "Yaller Squares." Members of the cast are as follows: Pauline Anthony, Lillie Mae Odom, Lois Cobb, Francis Noblet, Ouida Wiggins, and Mary Elizabeth Dooley.

Miss Ethel Kaderle states that the cast is a good one, but that it needs the support of the student body to win. Why not go to Gladewater and see "Yaller Squares" win over the other plays tonight?

clarinets class I; Elsie Bell and Charles Ellis, Bb clarinets in classes II.

The Junior Band won second rating in concert, sight reading, and marching events.

Girl's chorus and first division winners are eligible to enter the regional contests to be held in Abilene and San Antonio in May.

1000 teachers, secretaries, and superintendents will meet in Longview to hold the annual District 8 meeting, April 7 and 8.

The teachers will represent the different schools and colleges of the northeastern division.

Friday night, April 8, several prominent speakers will be presented at the junior high school. Among them will be Dr. A. W. Birdwell of Nacogdoches State Teacher College; Mr. Merle Prunty, president of Stevens Teachers College, and Superintendent Henry Stillwell of Texarkana.

Saturday morning sectional meetings will be held at the Baptist church. The secretaries, principals of elementary schools, principals of high schools, social science teachers, home economics teachers art teachers, history, mathematics, English, Spanish and all other teachers of the different subjects taught in public schools will hold separate meetings in the different parts of the building.

Lynn Landrum Presented By Turner Sunday School Class

Lynn W. Landrum, well known commentator in The Dallas Morning News, spoke on "International Relations" at the Methodist Chapel Monday, March 13.

The main trend of his speech was on dictators and the relations of dictators with Europe and the United States.

In speaking of the school work in journalism, Mr. Landrum stated, "Students studying journalism will profit not only in writing news stories but also in judging them. After one has once written a news story, he is able to weigh the news and realize whether an article in the paper is correctly written or not. I think journalism in the schools is a very fine thing."

Mr. Landrum was brought to Longview by the Turner Sunday School class. The proceeds of the lecture will be used for the work with the needy.

Grant, Grupell Senior Declamers For L.H.S.; Meet Tomorrow

In the senior declamation contest, Coleen Grant and Berry Grupell will represent Longview High School in the county meet, tomorrow.

Other winners in declaration are as follows: Lynn Henderson ranks second for senior girls; Betty Lee McAlpin won first for the junior girls and Isabel James won second; Lesley Simmons will represent the junior boys.

Lillian Mixon and Troy Lee are Longview's entries for extemporaneous speaking.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE SIGNIFY NATIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Some very pretty gold pins bearing the insignia J. C. L. and the torch of knowledge have been seen around school lately.

These pins signify that the Latin Club has been received into the National organization known as the Junior Classical League. This is sponsored by the American Classical League which is an organization of the Latin teachers of America.

The organization of local chapters is left up to the individual clubs and sponsor, but it is directed by the national group.

The creed taken to become a member of this organization is as follows:

The members of the Junior Classical League covenant to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world. They believe an acquaintance with the civilization of Greece and Rome will help them understand and appraise this world of today which is indebted to ancient civilization in its government laws, literature, languages, and arts.

The Longview chapter has the distinction of rating second in the state in the number of members, having 54 members while Lamar Senior High School in Houston has 63.

The 18 new members taken in since mid-term are conspicuous by their purple and gold ribbons and their bundle of rods and axes made by them and carried to each class. Various forms of initiation stunts are required from these pledges whose initiation will be held at a picnic given by Louise Davis at her home on the Judson road.

MR. FOSTER RETURNS

Every one was glad to see Mr. Foster return to school Monday. He was ill last week because of an attack of influenza.

ELIGIBILITIES FOR JOURNALISM AND ANNUAL STAFF ANNOUNCED

Junior Class Receives $50

Because the Senior Class ordered their invitations from the Schmidt Engraving Company in Waco, Texas, that company has sent the junior class fifty dollars to be used in the Junior-Senior banquet.

The Schmidt Engraving Company gives fifty dollars each year that the seniors order invitations from them to help in the senior entertainment. Miss Jane Etheridge, sponsor of the junior class, received the check last Tuesday.

Longview Student Council Delegates Visit Kilgore Meet

Several student council members attended a meeting at the Kilgore High School, Saturday, March 4.

Delegates from Kilgore, Tyler, and Longview met to make plans for the convention to be held next year and to discuss the various problems of their schools.

President Hardy Miller brought up the matter concerning the convention to be held next year and moved that Tyler and Kilgore cooperate with Longview in order to bring the next convention to Longview.

Tyler, however, also made plans to try to have the next convention in their city.

Tyler and Longview finally reached the decision that both cities would bid for the convention and the one placed on the time and place committee would be supported to the utmost by the other city.

Students from the different towns told of the way the students council meetings were carried on in their schools. These suggestions proved helpful to the members whose school had the same trouble.

Another joint meeting which will be held in Tyler in the near future was planned.

Members from Longview who attended were Dorothea Connelly, Billie Katherine Ferguson, Helen Hall, Jean Tooke, Bootsie James, Ben Bob James, Hardy Miller, E. C. Johnson, and Billy Huie.

TWO NEW MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED FOR SCHOOL BOARD

The Longview Independent School Board set Saturday, April 1, as the date for holding the election of officers at their regular monthly meeting, Tuesday evening, March 7.

This date is in accordance with state laws which states that such elections shall be held on the first Saturday in April.

The terms of J. W. Harrison and O. L. Norton expire this year. Members on the board who will remain in office are: J. M. Wood, J. W. McDaniel, H. L. Evans, H. S. Turner, and Dr. H. A. Ross. J. O. Browning has been appointed judge of the election by the board.

Routine business matters were also discussed at the meeting. Bills were apportioned and ordered paid; the conditions of the finances were checked; and J. W. Harrison reported that the records of the school were improved and its credits were in no danger of being lost.

GOODSON, WINKLER SOON MEET "VICTIMS"

A busy week is in store for the Lobo tennis team, composed of William Goodson, and Silas Winkler.

The boys take on the Marshall Mavericks here this afternoon. Monday, they tangle with the Tyler Lions on the local courts. They journey to Gladewater Tuesday to meet the Bears. Wednesday, they play a return match with the Mavericks at Marshall. The final game of the week comes Thursday afternoon at Tyler. A match has been arranged with Terrell but no date has been set. The boys would appreciate any means of transportation any one might give them.

Y. M. C. A. NEEDED

The young men of Longview have felt the need of a Y. M. C. A.

This organization can be found in most cities which look after the welfare of the young people. Various people who have lived in these cities have expressed their opinions in trying to obtain this organization. The association offers a chance to the young man to obtain recreation at a moderate cost.

Many forms of sports are offered by this institution. Wrestling, boxing and swimming are among these.

If more of our students realize the need of the Y.M.C.A. we can obtain one here in Longview.

THANKS!

The Junior Class wishes to express its appreciation to those who assisted in making the junior play the success it was.

The following firms and individuals lent their services: Longview Flower Shop, Home Furniture Co., Grimes Electric Co., McWilliams Furniture Co., Palais Royal, KFRO, Mr Rogers McClelland, director; Miss Daisy Leigh Hughes, assistant; Thomas Watson, and Ray Ferrell, curtain tenders; Bobby Slade, Bert Espy, George McIvane, and Herschel Nance, tuxedos; Mr. C. L. York, sound effects; Maude Lynette Norton, Vera Gray, Norma Lee, Evelyn Bivins, Helen June Huff, and Wanda Henly, properties.

SPRING FEVER

Next Tuesday, March 21, is the first official day of spring. Most people are feeling it already—four whole days ahead of time!

If this were in Daddy's time, he would probably take off his shoes, pick up his rod, and go down to the river to fish.

But in this day and age, Junior will probably jump in his old flivver or slide into his new convertible and go flying off somewhere—anywhere.

This is all very good and lots of fun, but remember that "familiarity breeds contempt." If you do it too often, it will cease to be fun. Why not try school about five days a week and then have a good time with a free conscience over the week-end.

Know Your Seniors

A beloved little gal with a marvelous personality and character to match is Margaret Ann Grizzle.

"Griz" is a typical girl's girl, and she could easily have even more boy friends than girl friends if she but wanted them.

She has beautiful red hair that is the envy of everyone, and pearly white teeth that sparkle just as her eyes do.

Much to the sorrow of many boys, Grizzle would rather go fishing and hunting with her girl friends than have a dozen dates.

She plans to study animal husbandry in T. C. U. next fall and hopes to own a ranch someday.

Emory Barton has spent six years of his life in Henderson, three years in Kilgore, and eight years in Longview. He prefers Longview to the other places.

Emory states that he doesn't know any girls and that they all are the same with a few exceptions. Everyone knows that Una Bob Reese is the most important exception. He dislikes nosy people, gossipers, and two timers but he likes to develop pictures and watch football games.

His idea of a perfect time would be to race in a fast car on a race track.

Emory is undecided about his future vocation but he will probably go to school or work next year.

"There's nothing like the good ole Summertime when you skip Friday afternoons and go to the old swimming hole," says Bette Jeanne Thomson.

Bette Jeanne's only dull moments come when she is studying and the happiest, when she is with football hero Jack Skipper, better known as "Twinkle Toes."

Bette is an excellent dancer and always gets a big rush at any dance she attends.

She is a talented actress, she plans to study dramatics in Baylor University next year.

Tommy Anderson's deepest sorrows are that he doesn't have a car of his own.

"It makes me furious to see people in a car when I can't get one," sighs Tommy.

His favorite song is "Hold Tight" and he pleads with assembly performers to play or sing it for him. He would rather dance than eat, and he loves to eat.

A cute little girl from Oklahoma seems to be Tommy's heart interest at the present writing and he really enjoys corresponding with her.

Tommy wants to become a great cattle raiser, nevertheless, he is going to Texas Tech to study geology next year.

A sunny disposition, a great big grin, a strong character, a grand sport, and plenty of brains—

Combine all these and you have Helen Hall, one of the best liked girls in school.

Helen has a dozen friends to each cute freckle on her face. Everyone delights in teasing her about her big lips which are really very beautiful.

Her pet hate is people who treat her nice when they do not mean it. However, it is hard to understand how anyone could help meaning to be nice to her.

You'll see Helen smiling brighter than ever during the week-ends when "Dandy" Dick Miller is home.

Many girls who think that Helen got her grand figure by swimming, playing tennis, basketball, and other sports, do the same in order to look like her.

Although she hopes to attend S.

BONHAM, (TSP)—Genuine imitation of a real Hollywood Movie premier was the program recently staged by the Bonhi Pierrot Club at Bonham High School. Students dressed like movie stars in their latest picture, arrived in luxurious limousines and addressed the crowd over a microphone.

Among the notables arriving for the premier were the Dead End Kids, Town Mayor, autograph seekers, a doctor, two officers, electricians, photographers, reporters, chauffeurs, theater manager, a heckler and Mae West's two husbands.

WACO, (TSP)—Seniors at Waco High School are working on a plan for all-student body dances to be held once a month in the high school gymnasium with music to be furnished by a local orchestra at a special contract price low enough to permit attendance for fifty cents a couple. A chance to express an opinion on the proposal, now subject to decision of the school board, is being given students of the school through the paper, the Huacoan.

MISSION, (TSP)—Clifford Parlman, new transfer student at Mission High School, has chalked up to his credit experience as an engine technician, a cabin boy, and a jack-of-all-trades on a freighter.

Before coming to Texas from Indiana, Clifford spent two years working on a boat which touched numerous of the world's most important seaports.

DALLAS, (TSP) — A Texas high school band director, Col. Ralph Beck, conductor of the Highland Park High School Band, will direct a fifty-piece concert band of skilled high school musicians on a tour of Alaska, Canada and parts of the United States this summer.

Accompanying the selected band will be a football squad composed of outstanding high school athletes and coached by Charlie Sprague, captain of the S. M. U. Mustangs this year.

Highlights of the trip will be a training camp in Skagway, Alaska, for the football players and a concert to be played by the band at the San Francisco World's Fair over an N. B. C. hook-up.

BEAUMONT, (TSP)—It's a draw, say students of Beaumont High School where sweet and swing tied for popularity in a recent poll conducted to determine the favorite dance music of students.

Adhering to the old American custom of taking the middle course, Miss Average dancer at Beaumont High said, "Music Maestro, but don't go to extremes."

Most of the students, with the exception of the extreme left wing of the jitterbug faction, voted for "swing within limit and lots of sweet."

AUSTIN, March 17.—Portuguese is the latest language wrinkle at The University of Texas. An elementary course in that Romance language will be offered for the first time next fall because of the increasing interest in Spanish-American countries in which millions of persons speak that tongue.

KILGORE COLLEGE BAND PRESENTS PROGRAM

The Kilgore Junior College band presented a band concert in assembly Thursday, March 9.

All the music was classical except "Twelfth Street Rag;" however, students proved that they could be enthusiastic listeners. The band closed with "Auld Lang Syne" and a promise to return soon with an all swing program.

M. U. next year, she will probably go to T. C. U.

Eva Ruth Wood is one of the few girls who possess both beauty and brains.

She adores dancing, swimming, and a boy who attends North Texas Teachers College. She hears from him every other day and confesses that she thinks she's in love.

Eva Ruth is called "Woo Woo" by her best pals. Although everyone loves her, her most constant companion is Vivian Graves.

She likes basketball and is one of the best players in school. Eva Ruth is going to Kilgore College for two years and after that she will go either to another school or get married.

Campus Cat

After having collected choice bits of this and that, we have the pleasure to present to you, the CAMPUS CAT, the people's column

Have You Heard???????

That "Tyrone" Bobby Smith is tired of all the L. H. S. maidens scrutinizing him and exclaiming "Why he does look like him."

That the physics class has given up going to Grand Saline?

That Raymond Baba is seen frequently with Ruth Hardiman?

"Attenshun" girls—Why let Billie Marie Stewart wear two gold footballs?

When the cats away, the mice will play; won't you Tom?

Three Wishes—

William Lee Knox wishes to buy (if price is within reason) Ouida Norris' telephone number.

Billy Jean Hardin wishes that people would stop saying she is so small she could walk through the eye of a needle without bumping her head.

Johnny Bishop wishes that there was some other way to get one of those pretty little certificates Mr. Speight gives away upon completion of work in L. H. S. other than the five year plan he is having to submit to.

—Now is the time for all supposedly good seniors to begin worrying.

Frank Hodges is afraid he will wake up and find all this business about his graduating (at last) a dream.

Paul Clements thinks that puppy love is the beginning of a dog's life.

We Wonder—

If Jack Smaha was thinking of "Annie" King, when he sang "I Must See Annie Tonight" in assembly the other day?

If you've read the poem Patsy supposedly wrote about Robert (Giggles) Grimes?

If Floyd Rumbaugh knows a faint heart never won a fair lady, but a full purse will turn the trick?

If you've heard Louise Davis talking about Bud C? (Watch out, Bud).

There is no mistaking this familiar face; it is "Nuts", Billy Huie, in Person.

One of the schools most beautiful is Judy Lyle.

So, this is the secret of Margaret Simons' beauty.

You sure have a lot of books there, Mary "T".

Evelyn, take off the coat; spring is here.

If certain people got safely away from the Harlem nite spot?

Now here's an interesting triangle that with just a little help could become a rectangle. Angle A—Dorothy J. Rawlinson; angle B—Gus Parker; angle C—Buddy Akin. This is an isosceles (if you can work it at all).

When angle A turns those twinkling eyes on angle B, what does angle C do? Does it make any difference to the area? (Next week kiddies, perhaps there will be a nice diagonal or rhombus.)

Didja Know? ? ? ?

That every thing is insured in L.H.S. except the clock and—every one watches it.

That Billie Campbell adores horror programs?

It's hard for Catherine C. to get anyone to "skip" with her these days?

Ada Laverne Fuller, petite soph, can stir up more cane than the whole school?

"Nog" (Ann Ava) is giving her friends some worry. Here's hoping she doesn't have another appendicitis attack.

Billie K. is doing a fine job of keeping K.J.C. and hometown boys at the same time.

Tommy Anderson gets a big kick out of lingering around with Laura and Morris. He's provoking them. I'm sure he knows three's a crowd.

Jane Wood and Faye S. are deeply concerned over the fate of a certain Kilgore boy. Just a friend. They say—.

SPORT SPARKS—

With the county track meet coming up next Saturday at Gladewater, the Lobos have started bearing down a bit in practice. At the present, Malcolm Blackwell appears to be the brightest prospect for state honors. Malcolm has lettered two years, but has never got farther than the regional meet. The way he was broad jumping last Thursday is an indication that he is determined to go somewhere this year.

William Knox is another likely looking prospect. He took second places in the mile last week after having practiced only a few days. He took it easy all the way and didn't even appear to be winded at the finish while the rest of the entries were puffing like steam engines.

Looking over football, two sophomores who look like comers are Billy Wren and Lamar Eberhart. Both are small in size as football men go, but they are real hustlers. Wren, a guard, is at the bottom of practically every pile-up while Eberhart is knocking down or intercepting passes in the backfield.

One of the major upsets in the intramural handball tournament was defending champion James Freudiger's defeat by Don Lovitt in the finals of the upper bracket. Freudiger was favored to retain his title this year, but apparently no one had counted on Lovitt. . . . The county volley ball meet comes up in a few weeks; and, as the volley ball team comes from P. E. classes, the sport is being stressed in P. E. . . . Playground ball started last Monday with a large number of boys out. The Lobos were defeated by Gladewater last year, 16-3, and the boys are hoping to avenge that defeat this year.

GUEST BAND DIRECTORS GIVEN RECEPTION

The third year home economics class prepared and served refreshments at a reception for the visiting band directors and their wives, Friday, March 10.

A reception under the direction of Miss Bessie Edith Wynn was given for the band directors in the home economics laboratory during the band contest.

Miss Mary Walke, looking very lovely in an aqua satin evening dress with silver accessories, presided at the punch bowl. Fragrant spring flowers composed the decorations.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Millar Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin, Miss Phyllis Brannon, Mr. R. L. Speight, and Mrs. Franklin Martin.

During the evening Mrs. Ray Martin sang two solos, Mrs. W. E. Downey rendered several piano solos, and Mrs. Franklin Martin played a violin solo.

About forty-five guests attended the affair.

1939-40 Officer Candidates Picked By Nominating Group

A nominating committee, selected from the student council, met Wednesday, March 15, to select candidates for next year.

A president, vice-president, second vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer are to be elected.

The seniors on the nominating committee are: Billie Katherine Ferguson, Helen Hall, Jimmy Layton, Bette Jeanne Thomson, Mary Elizabeth Hill, and Morris Newnham.

The juniors are Ray Tatum, Charles Johnson, Billy Huie, Ann King, and Charlotte Carbon.

The sophomores are: Mary Pipsaire, Joyce Wilson, A. G. Shaw, Lamar Everhart, and Tommy McGannon.

Homemakers Serve Clubs

For the first time during a school year, the second year home economics class served the three Men's Civics Clubs.

The second year home economics class served the Rotary Club in December, Kiwanis Club, March 3, and are planning to serve the Lion's Club, March 15. This is the first time they have had the opportunity to serve all three clubs. The money received from these dinners is to be used to buy library books.

Kilgore Bulldogs Defeat Lobos

The Kilgore Bulldogs came from behind to defeat the Longview Lobo track squad in the first meet of the '39 season last Thursday at Lobo Stadium, 60-57.

With only the discus and javelin throws remaining, the Lobos held a 51-45 lead. Kenneth Ford of Longview heaved the javelin 154 feet 10 inches, to win the event, but the Bulldogs took second and third places. Collins of Kilgore took the discus throw with a heave of 85 feet, 6 inches. Lee took second place for Kilgore and Bohley of Kilgore edged out Bill Huey of Longview, giving Kilgore the meet.

Malcolm Blackwell of Longview was the individual star of the meet, scoring three firsts and a fourth for a total of 16 points. His first victory came when he ran the 100 yard dash in 10.7 seconds. After winning the broad jump with a leap of 20 feet, 1 inch, he outran Bob Speckman of Kilgore and Herb Skidmore of Longview to win the 220 yard dash. He ended the afternoon by copping fourth place in the javelin. Bob Speckman won the high jump, tied for second in the 220, and placed second in the javelin for a total of 10 1-2 points.

FORMER L. H. S. STUDENTS MAKE KILGORE SOCIETY

Eight former students of Longview High School were initiated into Phi Theta Kappa, national honor society of Kilgore Junior College during assembly, Thursday, March 9.

The requirements for this honor are wisdom, aspiration, and purity. The following from Longview were initiated: Beatrice Muller, A. V. Goyne, Jr., Leon Mann, Evelyn McBrayer, Etha Forman, Eugene Webb, Freeman Tatum, and Roy King.

Perfect Girl, Boy Picked From Students

SENIOR ORDERS AT SOSLAND'S

Senior announcements may now be ordered from Sosland's Diamond and Gift Shop. J. T. Terry is taking orders for personal cards.

Prices will be 6 1-2c each for plain invitations and 35c each for leather ones.

TYRONE POWER AND ALICE FAYE FAVORITE STARS

A smooth stretch of green grass surrounded by a body of pale blue water, palm trees stirred by a cool breeze from the water, flowers mixed in a patch of clover and a hillside! This is the description of a dream island upon which you are privileged to dwell for a day.

This is a perfect setting, but it would be paradise if we could take Tyrone Power or Alice Faye along with us. At least, that is the opinion of the majority of students questioned in Longview, miles away from any such paradise.

The following chose the handsome Tyrone Power: Marguerite Dilworth, Cosuelo Equihua, Illoe Mae Rogillio, Lucille Bowers, Ruth Arnold, and Geraldine Phillips.

Those who preferred the glamorous Alice Faye were Charles Sutton and Aubrey Curry.

Elwood Rische would take Olivia de Haviland; Elaine Foote, Mickey Mouse; Joe Little John, Ida Lupino; Julia Ann Lucy, Nelson Eddy; Dana Martin, Clark Gable; Bobby Griffin, Hedy Lamar; Lula Mae Fuller, Richard Greene; Taylor J. Myers, Mae West; Winston Pruitt, Jeanette McDonald.

The following decided that there were no movie stars so beautiful or handsome as certain students here in Texas. Dorothy Sonnenberg would take Eugene Wood, and A. C. Breckenridge, Billy Jean Flannery.

CHORAL CLUB TO ATTEND MUSIC FESTIVAL

The girl's choral club, directed by Miss Phyllis Brannon, will attend the musical festival in Nacogdoches, Texas, Saturday, March 18.

Miss Brannon stated that each group will sing two selections, one a capella, i.e. without accompaniment, and one with accompaniment. Longview chorus will sing Sebelius' "Refuge and Strength" (a capella) and Franck's "Bread of Life", which will be accompanied by Annie Frances Bistline.

After that a massed chorus of all clubs present will sing "Music When Soft Voices Die" by Kramer and "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn.

The complete schedule for the day is as follows: chorus and massed singing from 9:30 to 12:30; luncheon from 12:30 to 2:00; a concert by the Houston Symphony orchestra from 3:00 to 5:00.

Forty-eight girls will attend the meeting from Longview.

Shop And Band Hall To Be Ready For School

Men are hard at work each day in an effort to complete the band hall and shop in time for the opening of school.

During the winter, much time was lost because of rain. With the coming of spring, more progress has been made; and, at the present, the outer walls have been completed, windows installed, and work begun on the interior.

Parent Teacher's Association held its regular meeting, Tuesday, March 14.

Mrs. J. A. Pipsaire was leader, and the subject of discussion was "Community Relations of the Student."

Discussions were given by Mrs. A. S. Latham on "The Child and His Friends" and by Mrs. R. L. Speight on "The Parent's Part in Selecting Friends For Their Children."

The Boys Choral Club entertained with two numbers after the discussions were held.

SHOTWELL GIVES 1939 LOBOES SPRING WORKOUT, SEVEN 1938 LETTER MEN

Spring training was off to a good start this season with approximately thirty-five or forty boys reporting to Coach P. E. Shotwell.

Every schoolday afternoon after school and at the end of the sixth period, the boys report to the stadium. Practice has been under way and will continue until the last few weeks of school.

Most of the third week was taken up by the exercises and getting the boys in condition. But with the start of the second week, scrimmage began.

Every week two captains are picked who choose teams for an intrasquad game. The first teams play one half, and then the second teams play another half. Then after the second team plays one half, the first team plays again.

Last week's captains were Nick Carter and Merle Pendleton. Carter's team won and also received the ice cream that goes to the winning team. This week's captains are Kenneth Ford and Eugene McKnight.

Returning lettermen from last year's team are Nick Carter, Merle Pendleton, Herbert Skidmore, Kenneth Ford, Edgar Worsham, Billy Huie, and Gene McKnight.

"Oscar," Human Model, Taken Apart To Help Biology Students

"Look, he comes apart!" This is the sentence you might have heard a couple of weeks ago when the class of biology was studying blood circulation.

The sentence was referred to "Oscar" or whatever they call him, the human model. This model is the first of its kind to be used in the study of biology in this school. All the parts of the human body have been assembled and put together. The parts are replaceable.

The class is now studying communicable and non-communicable diseases.

Projects are also the subject of conversation for biology students. Bugs, butterflies, snakes, flowers, leaves—everything one can think of is being handed to the instructor, Mr. Walon Wilson. But that's all in the part of being a good pupil—handing in the most unusual project.

Debaters Chosen For Longview

Debaters representing Longview were chosen in an elimination contest Tuesday night, March 7.

Hardy Miller and Richard Henderson won first place for the boys team, and the Louise Davis-Christine Wilson team were winners for the girls.

Judges for the contest were Mr. Lynn Latham, Princess Louise Markham, and Mr. E. M. Branlette.

The P.-T. A. will present a medal to the best girl debator, and Mr. R. M. Dawson will present the best boy debator with a medal.

VARIOUS TALENT PRESENTED BY MATLOCK'S ROOM

Presenting a variety of talents, the students of Miss Exa Matlock's home room presented the assembly program Wednesday, March 8.

Tom Landers acted as master of ceremonies. Opening the program, members of the girls choral club, under the direction of Miss Phyllis Brannon, sang two numbers. Patricia Witt did a tap dance. A new kind of song interpretation was introduced by Eleanor Rhea LeBus and John Owens. Eleanor Rhea did the singing and John Owens helped her act out "Two Sleepy People."

Eunice Parker played "Deep Purple" as a cornet solo. Another song interpretation was carried out by Jack Smaha using the song, "I Must See Annie Tonight" Mildred Dalston, talented Sophomore, danced. Kimbrow Carson representing the lonely lover sang "Deep In a Dream"; with Buddy Akin as his inspiration he sang "You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby" for an encore. J. D. Johnston played a baritone solo.

The outstanding feature of the program was the introduction by Kimbrow Carson of the four probable drum majors for next year. They are Maud Lynette Norton, Gloria Grizzle, Eleanor Rhea LeBus, and Jack Smaha. The senior drum majors executed some of the routines that they used in the contest. The program was concluded with a difficult twirler's routine by Jack Smaha and Kimbrow Carson.

Goodson, Winkler To Represent L. H. S.

William Goodson and Silas Winkler will represent Longview High School in the county meet, in boy's tennis doubles, March 25.

Goodson and Winkler became the school's representatives by virtue of their two overwhelming victories over Whitehead and Todd and Warr and MacDonald.

Warr and MacDonald advanced to the finals by defeating Williams and Wallesch.

TOEING THE MARK

Are you loyal
To your school?
Are you obedient
To the golden rule?

At Longview High
Do you stand the test
And always try
To do your best?

Are you on time
When the bell tolls
Or do you lag behind
And have to be told?

That you are late
To your class
And in the hall
You have no pass?

Are you considerate
Of other's rights
Or always trying
To pick a fight?

Are your manners always
At their best
Or do you try
To cheat on tests?

Do you support your school
In everything
And honor to it
Try to bring?
—Maxine Ford.

New Clothes Herald Approach Of Spring

Say, have you seen the cute spring clothes some of the girls are wearing? Well, if you look hard enough, there is an eye-ful in it.

For instance, take the sporty saddle oxfords the girls are using for footwear. The new "Haurache" sandals aren't so bad either. And have you seen any of the new sweaters? Mary Owen Johnson's orchid one and Helen Martin's white and orchid sponge weave sweaters are good examples. A little on the dressy side is Betty Erman's chartreuse chiffon blouse. It is the ideal thing for these sunny spring days.

Pauline Pilon's dress of rose linen-shantung is of the typical school girl pattern, but it has a different line that attracts the eye. The fuchsia linen dress that Jocelyn Jones wears is another spring sensation. Betty Jean Thomson's blue linen skirt and yellow blouse present the perfect outfit for school wear.

All the girls, however, afford a pretty sight when they gather on the campus in their bright clothes. Whether spring, fall, or winter, girls of L. H. S. dress up to the minute and set the pace in the fashions of Longview.

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESENTS PROGRAM

Into the student council coffers went $18.69 as the result of the program presented for the students, Tuesday, March 7.

Almost every outdoor sport is offered. Some of these sports are swimming, canoeing, horse-back riding, and many others.

On Sundays the girls dress in white and attend church. Catholics may go to the Catholic church in Kerville, and the Protestants have chapel at the camp.

STUDENTS TURN MOVIE STARS

Under the auspices of Mr. W. A. Lanagan, moving pictures of local happenings around Longview were taken last week.

A picture was taken of the high school students, and these different scenes will be shown on the screen at a later date.

60 STUDENTS TAKE BIBLE STUDY, PROGRESS RAPIDLY

Since the last semester, the Bible class has increased with astonishing rapidity. Whether the Bible has become phenomenally popular or whether the students have decided to "mend their ways," the fact remains that the class possesses a roll of 60 students!

Every six weeks a teacher of a different denomination instructs the class, and Mrs. Albert Latham of the First Christian church is conducting the class this month.

Mrs. Latham opened the first class with this very appropriate statement, "One of the first things you will learn in here is to respect the Jews, for Christ Himself was a Jew."

Miss Hughes Receives Gift

Miss Daisy Leigh Hughes was presented a necklace by the girl's basketball team at a party Saturday evening, March 4.

This necklace was given for Miss Hughes' excellent services in refereeing at the basketball games this year.

The party was held at the home of Lolita Hestland at Spring Hill. Games, such as bingo and chinker checks were played after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. A St. Patrick's theme was carried out very effectively.

School Secretaries To Present Show

The sectional meeting of the District Association of School Secretaries will have a style show as the main feature of entertainment, April 8.

The sectional meeting will be held at the same time the other sections hold their meetings. Mr. H. W. Stillwell of Texarkana will speak on "The Secretaries Place in the School." At twelve o'clock there will be a luncheon in the Hilton Hotel Club room. The style show will be held at that time. Mr. Bish Mathis, president of Bish Mathis Institute will be the guest speaker.
