

SENIORS TO PRESENT PLAY TONIGHT

Mary Owen Johnson Valedictorian; Fannie Winn, Salutatorian

Bobby Griffin, Bennie Frances Williams Win Third, Fourth Honors

Lacking two tenths of a point having a perfect score, Mary Owen Johnson has the highest average ever made by a Longview student, and Fannie Winn is within four tenths of her average.

The '39 graduating class will be proud to have as their valedictorian Mary Owen, who has an average of 99.8. She has taken part in many school activities and has not been absent or tardy for the last two years of high school. Mary Owen has studied Latin, her favorite subject, for four years and won first place in senior division in Latin essays. She also receives the scholarship award.

Fannie Winn is salutatorian with an average of 99.4. Fannie has done excellent work during her senior year in both shorthand and typing, and she entered in both contests for those subjects. She went to State in shorthand and will receive the commercial award. She is girl's sports editor and make-up editor of the Lobo.

Ranking third is that mathematics whiz Bobby Griffin with an average of 98.9. Although it is rumored that most girls are smarter than boys, Bobby is one exception to the rule. He is to receive one of the scholarships from the schools which give the two.

Other honor students are Bennie Francis Williams with an average of 98.4, Mary Lee Abat, 98.3 Marguerite Beasley, 98.2, Corrine Toews, 97.9, and William Goodson, 97.8.

Homemaking Classes To Present "Suzanne Shop," An Operetta

"The Suzanne Shop," a fashion operetta will be presented by the homemaking classes, Tuesday evening, May 16.

Leading characters are: Madam Suzanne, owner of a smart shop for women, played by Melonie Abney.

Eliza Jane, a comedy part played by one of the smarter girls who admires and imitates Aunt "Sue," played by Billie Jean Hardin.

Marie, a "French" maid lately come from Ireland played by Helen Thomas.

Mrs. Hipeak, an anxious well-to-do-mother shopping for her daughter, played by Iris Rogers.

Lenore Hipeak, youngest daughter, gay and vivacious, just going away to college portrayed by Patti Witt.

Ann Hipeak, older daughter, brunette, quiet and reserved played by Margaret Simmons.

Groom of Madam Suzanne played by Althis Sheffield.

The dresses to be modeled during the operetta were made by the students for both first and second semesters and will be modeled by the ones who made them.

Street dresses, evening dresses, sport dresses, afternoon dresses, house dresses, and school dresses will all be modeled together with a wedding party.

JUANITA NEWMAN WINS FIRST AT MEET

Juanita Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Newman, received the only superior rating given at the State Music Meet at Austin, Saturday, April 22.

Juanita, a soprano, is a voice pupil of Mrs. W. Millar Brown, president of the State Senior Music Clubs.

Mrs. A. C. Buchanan, Longview Junior Counsellor, was awarded a silver loving cup for her work with the juvenile clubs.

Both the senior and juvenile clubs received the highest club rating in the state.

VALEDICTORIAN AND SALUTATORIAN

With an average of 99.7 Mary Owen Johnson will be valedictorian of the 1939 graduating class. Fannie Winn, with a score of 99.4, will be salutatorian. This year's valedictorian has the highest average in the history of Longview High School.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET MAY 12

Miss Jane Etheridge, sponsor of the junior class, has announced that the Junior class will honor the senior class with a banquet and dance Friday evening, May 12.

The banquet and dance will be held in the school gymnasium. It is one of the most anticipated events of the season. It is also the last time that the Juniors and Seniors have an opportunity to meet together.

All Juniors and Seniors are urged to attend and to bring dates so that the dance will be a big success.

Wilson's Room Presents Program

An interesting program was given in assembly by Mr. Waylon Wilson's home room, April 26.

Ada Marie Haught opened the program with "Small Fry." She returned later in the program and sang two more delightful numbers.

Jack Smaha entertained the students with two sweet potato numbers, one on his large potato and another on his small one.

Mildred Dalston, clad in a colorful costume, executed an interesting tap dance.

"Deep Purple," a piano solo by Mary Ellen Oliver, proved to be very entertaining.

Carolyn Brown sang "My Heart Belongs to Daddy."

Mary Keith, petite dancer from Shivers, presented the Whirling Dervish like an old hand.

Ann Weeks concluded the program with vocal solo, "Could Be."

Booth and Johnson Enter Latin Meet

Carolyn Booth and Mary Owen Johnson, Latin students, won first and third places respectively in the State Latin Meet for their essays.

They won first places in the district and regional meets Carolyn's theme, "Vesuvius Destroyer of Cities," was entered in the second year division. Mary Owen's theme, "Greek Gods and Heroes in Art," was entered in the fourth year division.

In Memoriam

As seniors prepare for graduation, we think of a classmate we lost in the eighth grade, Bob Slaughter.

Bob was born in Wayland, Texas, February 3, 1922. He came to Longview, May 20, 1932. His lovable character and winning personality won him the friendship of all who knew him. May 18, 1936 we remember as the day we lost a leader and a friend.

So, with lingering thoughts and sad hearts, we think of—Bob.

L. H. S. TO HAVE TWO ENTRIES IN STATE MEET

For the first time in the history of Longview High there are two commercial students participating in the State Meet in Austin, today and tomorrow.

Lillie Jean Jones who is to be in the typing division won first place in County, District, and Regional meets. Never before has Longview had a representative at the State meet in shorthand, but Fannie Winn will be the entry in that division tomorrow. She won second in county, first in district, third in regional and in addition to this stayed in the typing contest up until Regional meet.

Miss Exa Matlock, Commercial teacher in Longview High, has taken a student to the State meet for the last three years, this being her fourth.

She and her two students left today for the University of Texas, where the meet is being held in one of the buildings on the campus.

L. H. S. TEACHERS TO SUPERVISE SUMMER SCHOOL

Mr. H. L. Foster has announced that Miss Violet McLaurin and Mr. C. N. Wilkinson will have charge of the summer school to be held at Junior High from May 30 to July 15.

Tuition will be $7.50 per half unit, and no student may take more than two half units. Classes will begin at seven o'clock in the morning and end at one in the afternoon.

At the present time, no schedule of classes has been issued, as the teachers do not know how many students will attend nor what subjects they will wish to take.

Seniors To Observe Kid Day; Picnic

The senior class will have one more grand and glorious day before leaving, Wednesday, May 17.

The pages of time will be turned back and the girls again will be in short dresses and pigtails and the boys in short pants. This will be the first time that "Senior Kid Day" has been observed. The assembly program will consist of only seniors. After the program the seniors will leave for an all day picnic.

Roy Edwards Has Perfect Record For Five Years

It is interesting and not in the least surprising to find that those who are present the most make the best grades. It is highly improbable but not impossible to have a perfect attendance record throughout Junior and Senior High School. Fannie Winn is an excellent example, for she hasn't been absent a day since she was in the second grade!

Roy Edwards has had a perfect attendance record since he was in the sixth grade.

Pauline Pilon has only one absence marked against her in three years. James Hineman has had a perfect record, with the exception of two days, through high school.

Louise Waters has been present every day for two years.

Katy May Perkins has been absent two days in three years.

Mary Owen Johnson lacks only three days being present every day in senior high.

The inseparables, Corrine Toews and Marguerite Beasley, have both been present every day for three years.

Doris Warwick missed only one day in seven years.

Bobby Griffin has been perfect in attendance throughout High School except for two tardies.

"Growing Pains," the roaring success of New York and Hollywood, will be presented by the senior class in the junior high auditorium tonight at 8:15 p. m.

Aurcna Rouveral, the authoress of "Growing Pains," has proved before that she is a master hand in depicting family life—"Skidding" being a notable example. In tonight's play she has taken children for her subject and once more gives an illumination and authentic drama of real human beings.

A few press notes gathered from New York and Los Angeles will convince you what an amusing play, "Growing Pains" is. "Growing Pains" has been very popular both with the younger and older spectators, which goes to show that we all like familiar things, and things we recognize as parts of our own experiences. Real life and homely humor."—San Marino Tribune.

"A fresh and amusing—a funny show, humorously written."—New York Herald-Tribune.

None of us escapes the joys and sorrows of adolescence and few of us fail to respond sympathetically when these experiences are presented to us in books or on the stage.

The story of "Growing Pains" tells the dilemma of the McIntynes, who see their boy and girl tossed in the cataracts of adolescence and can help little further than give direction for the turbulent course from a distance, advices which egocentric youth always rejects, of course.

The cast for tonight's play includes: George McIntyne, the love sick swain, Bobby Slade; Terry McIntyne, his wartime little sister, Margaret Rumbaugh; Mrs. McIntyne, the distracted mother, Miriam Moyer; Professor McIntyne, the puzzled father, Tommy Anderson; Brian, Terry's secret sorrow, Silas Winkler; Dutch, Omar's friend, Grant Donaldson; Prudence Darling, the vamping, young flirt that steals all the boys hearts, Colleen Grant; Mrs. Patterson, a large, aggressive woman with a determined jaw, Louise Davis; Elsie, Mrs. Patterson's daughter, Margaret Ann Grizzle; Traffic officer, a gruff, surly fellow, Bob Barnes.

Other characters are Omar, Bob Joyner; Hal, Tilman Perkins, and Pete, James Hineman; Patty, Dutch's tagging girl friend, Ann Nation; Jane, Billie Katherine Ferguson; Miriam, Helen Merle McHaney; Vivian, a cute, Southern Flirt, Helen Hall, Sophie, the maid, Pauline Pilon; Sally, Dorothy Ulin.

These two kids, George and Terry, go through their trials with the company of the neighborhood kids. Laughter poles upon laughter as the play progresses, and little shafts of genuine pathos are deftly interspersed, making the pattern complete.

A large crowd is expected to attend "Growing Pains" tonight. The price is 25c and 50c.

SO GRAND A TIME

It is rather sad, isn't it? Not that school is out for the year, for the seniors high school is out for good. Before we go let's wander through the building once more—for the last time. Shall we?

There's the trophy case in front of us. How carefully we watched for each new trophy or loving cup. We felt that they were partly ours. Now they belong to someone else.

Here is the office. Remember when someone was sent for—we wanted to know what had happened but too scared to find out? They won't send for us again.

Joe is coming toward us with his constant companion, the broom. Hear him? He's saying, "Hello, Little Lady." The halls look so familiar with the hall monitor sternly demanding our pass. Here's a half-open locker with paper sticking out. Looks like our old untidy locker.

This room is our former home room. Remember the "third period" picnics we used to have. There won't be any more of those either.

Let's peek into some of the funny familiar class rooms. We ought to be sitting in that desk right there, shouldn't we? It's somebody else's desk now.

It's getting late—we'd better go. It's funny to think this is the last time we will enter "our" school building. As we go out the big front door, let's pause here under this dear familiar tree for one last look. With a lump in our throat, all we can say is, "Thanks—so grand a time—goodbye."

GRADUATIONS

Graduation? A familiar word and one that holds much meaning. Have you ever thought exactly what it does mean? We are given a diploma and a handshake and then—we stand on the threshold of life, no longer sheltered by the walls of that old school house. Graduates! It's up to you now! What will be your choice? Do you remember how you hated to go to school when anything else was more inviting and yet what an empty feeling when there is no more demand for your presence in the old school room! Yes, sometimes we thought the teacher was hard and thoughtless, but really she was looking out for our welfare and benefit—a pal at all times, if we would have given her half a chance.

Familiar faces will be gone, some of which will never be seen again. We thought we were mistreated when in reality we will never again witness such happy times.

In this last issue of "The Lobo," the journalism class wishes to thank Mr. Pericles Alexander for the constructive help they received from him the past year.

Mr. Alexander, graduate of Longview High School was editor of the first school paper in Longview High. He was a reporter for "The Daily Texan" while attending the University of Texas. Motion picture reviews and features are of special interest to him.

MARTINS AND THE BOYS HAD NOTHING ON L. H. S. GIRLS

Since the world began there have been feuds. It didn't start with the Martins and the Coys, and it doesn't end with just the boys. The girls, in fact, have been in and at the bottom of many.

Hodges and Billy Bob are still cool toward each other though Hodges no longer seems to crave the affections of Miss Wood.

Mary Owen Johnson and Louise Davis have long been feuding over the affections of James Hineman, Louise seemed to have given up for a while after Mary Owen moved next door to him. But now she seems to be making rapid progress during practice of the senior play.

Bob Grimes is always feuding with the journalism class. It seems that Bob is always picking out people who resemble movie stars and the rest of the class don't agree. The only agreement they have had this year occurred when Bob said that Bob Smith looked like Ty Power. seem to have anything to do with each other. Could it be because of a certain one of last year's football heroes they both liked at the same time?

Helen Ruth Brewton and Ouida Wiggins are two more who don't appear to be over in love with each other. It seems that Ouida thought Bette Erman and Judy Lyle never Tom would look better on the string around her own neck.

What this school needs is more people like Maxie Lesche. Maxie gallantly loses her man to another girl; and, as a mere matter of course, she sets right out to find another one.

Ware's Home Room Presents Program

Miss Eunice Ware's Sophomore home room presented the assembly program Wednesday, April 19.

Mr. H. L. Foster introduced Mr. J. W. Dalston, the speaker of the morning. Mr. Dalston in turn introduced the Reverend Lawrence Brown who gave the invocation. Mr. Foster led the student assembly in a chorus of "America."

Mr. Dalston chose as his subject, "Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow." He brought out the point that all that has happened before is gone and that people only have today and tomorrow to make better successes of their lives.

In closing Mr. Dalston asked several questions pertaining to English, history, and home economics. Anyone in the audience was permitted to answer.

Know Your Seniors

Juanita Ash is a superb actress. She won second place in acting in the county meet. Her favorite subject is dramatics.

Perry Connally is definitely a man's man. He would rather watch roosters fight than anything.

Roy Edwards' hobby is swimming. He hopes to go to Baylor and to become a radio announcer.

Two inseparable pals are Ruth Hardeman and Mamie Alice Turner. They love to skate and go to midnight shows.

Tilman Perkins is probably the school's best dressed boy. He plans to go to Southwestern next year and study medicine.

Everyone's idea of a swell girl is Delores Rea. She has a heart interest in Kilgore College.

Ruth Arnold, blond, small, and cute, is an excellent horseback rider.

Tall, blond, and handsome Buck Wade makes every girl's heart skip a beat.

Dorothy Rose, beautiful as well as sweet, is one of the happiest of the senior class because she is graduating.

One of the most intelligent seniors is Bennie Frances Williams who never makes less than an A.

Fannie Winn is an expert when it comes to thinking of new hair styles.

Elton Anthony's main interest is Ann Nation. He is seldom seen without her.

May Forrest Denton is another of our school's many girls who go steady. She is seldom seen without Carolyn and Antionette.

Carolyn Booth is sweet as well as adorable. She is probably one of the best liked students in school.

Edith Schrimsher is always happy. Her most joyful moments occur when she is riding with Antionette.

Another bright pupil is Mary Elizabeth Dooley, who finished both her junior and senior year this term.

Billie Marie Stewart plans to be a bookkeeper. Her hobby is keeping football scrapbooks.

Doris Warwick's ambition is to become a nurse. Her happiest moments are anytime when she is dancing.

Ouida Wiggins is the girl friend of Tom Landers. She came here from Oklahoma City.

Louise Davis' ambition is to marry a millionaire so that she will have fifty servants just to wash dishes.

The only interest of Lee Killingsworth is Evelyn Holliman—Do we blame him?

Pretty Sue Jeanne Daly's ideal boy is Kimbrew Carson. She plans to be a stenographer.

Louise Smith is one of the few that enjoys good reading material.

We are proud of J. T. Terry, the art editor of this year's annual.

Irene Murphy is going to settle down and be a housekeeper. She loves to sew.

Pauline Anthony loves to skate and swim. She hopes to be an air hostess someday.

Frances Todd likes Leo Sapp as well as her educational interest.

Elsie Pope enjoys bicycle riding more than any other sport.

Jack Bolt is one of the school's football team. He is a woman hater.

Donald Bolt, Jack's brother, loves to ride horses. He is noted for his big sunny smile.

Robert Barnes enjoys dramatics. He was in both the dramatic class play and the senior play.

Althis Sheffield plans to be a great doctor when "he becomes a man."

James Jeter and Aubrey Dalton adore fishing and hunting. They go very often.

Dorothy Sonnenburg is very beautiful and is an excellent dancer. She likes to sew and see shows.

Ruby Nell Evans is in love with a college boy and the feeling is mutual. Her favorite pastime is seeing him.

Everyone knows and likes Bruce Gaw, better known as "Pop". His favorite sport is football, and he is an important player of the Lobos.

Lorraine Hayward is noted for her neatness. She keeps her lovely hair in perfect order always. She is going to Baylor next year.

Foster Returns From Austin

Mr. Foster has just returned from Austin where he was representing the school's interest.

A bill was brought in the senate to reduce the child apportionment from $22.50 to $17.50. The delegates were successful in raising the bill 50c.

Campus Cat

Well, frans, the ole campus cat has to start packing his pens and pencils for a long three months. How his whiskers wiggle in emotion as he scans the campus that was his and his alone, for the last time this year, and with forced gaiety he presents a super special senior column. Take it away, seniors—

Colleen Grant is really graduating after three years. No, not because she's unusually dense, but because she's been unusually unlucky at illness.

Jean Jones has always cherished the mad desire to skip school, but has never got up nerve to do it. Hey, Jean meet half the class at Whitehurst's at 1:15 today—the rest of "em" have done it ages ago.

Frank Hodges hoped to graduate after not more than three or four years hard labor. He has become such a permanent office fixture that the only reason Mr. Speight has agreed to let him depart is that he runs up the school telephone bills calling Mrs. Hodges and informing her of his latest prank.

THINGS WE NEVER KNEW 'TILL NOW.

Freshmen blush when they're embarrassed; seniors are embarrassed when they blush.

How awful it is to take an exam when even your best friend won't tell.

Some people are quiet and are suspected of being dumb, while others open their mouth and dispel all doubt about it.

He who laughs last probably didn't get the joke anyway.

In the good ole days, classes were opened with a prayer, now there's a prayer for them to close.

QUESTIONS THAT WILL PROBABLY NEVER BE ANSWERED

Whose picture does Eugene Burton take out in English class and take furtive looks at?

Who was it that went to Mattie's anniversary dance from L. H. S.

Why does the feud between Billie K. and Colleen continue to rage? (Could it be that Colleen got the coveted part of the flirt in the senior play?)

What's this we hear about nuptial bells ringing around dear ole Longview high?

Where did Johnny and "Ikey" Bishop learn to play cards? They have a very efficient method of abstracting the aces.

Is 777, the number of a cell, a locker, a password or 777 minutes till the bell?

Why are Bette Newman, Antoinette Woodall, May Forest Denton, Edith Schrimsher, and Carolyn Booth so thick?

THEY SAY—

That somebody named Irene in L. H. S. is married. But we are unable to find out who Irene is. Loraine H. is laughing up her sleeve at a certain girl's jealousy of her.

Iloe M. Rogelio has a feller that bears a close resemblance to Richard Greene.

"Pop" Gaw, Silas Winkler, Don Fambrough, Edgar Worsham, Gus Parker and Bobby Horne are eligible young bachelors. Maybe we should start a matrimonial bureau. To say nothing of an escort bureau.

L. H. S. AT A GLANCE.

Louise S. and Charles Watson. Melba Stovall and Winston Pruitt. Ouida Wiggins and Tom Landers. Dula Williamson and Tilman Perkins.

Sue Jeanne Daly and Kimbrew Carson.

DON'T TELL A SOUL, BUT—

Billie Campbell has only missed

Hurry Grace, or you might be late.

Louis seems a little worried, maybe exams are a little too close at hand.

This is real Florida weather, huh Mary Lillian?

Well Jump in "Pill". Is that your sweetest smile "Holly"?

one half day of school since she started to kindergarten. Quite a record—she must like school quite a bit.

Some of the "kids" in this school have most unusual nicknames. One of the most unusual ones is "Percy Adophius, III". Recognize yourself, Paul?

We knew seniors were childish, but we didn't know that things had gone this far. We found Louis Davis and Silas Winkler playing jacks be—

GRADUATION DERBY

- fine gifts for
- the graduate

THEY WIN NICHES IN HALL OF FAME

Scholarship

Mary Owen Johnson, though short of stature, has had enough big moments in her high school career to win for her, as valedictorian of the '39 graduating class, the medal for scholarship. Latin is her favorite subject. Indeed, she has taken it four years and enjoyed it thoroughly. In her three years in high school she has made all A's with the exception of two A's. Mary Owen is a member of the student council and has taken an active part in school activities.

Commercial

Longview's entrant in the State meet in shorthand for the first time in its history, is Fannie Winn. Fannie has second highest grades in the senior class and therefore will be salutatorian of the graduating class. She is an outstanding book-keeping student, make-up and sports editor of the "Lobo", a member of the National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll for the last two years. To her is given the commercial award.

Science

Longview High has one hope of having in its presence a great future inventor. This hope lies in Bobby Slade the one and only boy that girls agree on his being the perfect gentleman around school. Bobby is the camera feind of the campus. He has been president of the camera club for the last two years, photographer for the annual, and a member of the National Honor Society. Having had chemistry, physics, and now taking biology, he wins the science award for his extended knowledge in that course.

Citizenship

The citizenship award goes appropriately to Helen Hall. She is a member of the National Honor Society, president of the Quill and Scroll, business manager of the school paper, a member of the student council, the press club, and secretary of the senior class. Helen is also a member of the Dramatic club and has been in many of the school plays. At present she is cast in the senior play. She is very popular around the school and tries hard to promote the best citizenship in and outside the school.

Journalism

The journalism award is duly bestowed upon Jewel Harrington, the editor of this years school paper and feature editor of last years. She is president of the National Honor Society, parliamentarian of the local chapter of Quill and Scroll, and vice-president of the press club. Many hours of her time have been spent in getting the paper ready for printing, and in the meantime suffering through the trials and tribulations of an editor. For this outstanding work she will receive this award.

Music

An outstanding member of the band and winner of the music award is Paul D. Miller. Paul D. has done excellent work in music and has been eligible for entry in many contests in which he almost always received a place. He is student director, and directs the band when the director is away. He was given a scholarship to Southwestern University, but it is not known whether he will attend that college or not.

History

Blond haired, alert Mary Lee receives the history award for her progress in that subject. Being fifth honor graduate Mary Lee has the reputation of making straight A's. She is a member of the National Honor Society and participates in a number of activities in the school. She was entered in the county shorthand contest and served as alternative in the essay contest. By her works you can see that she is quite deserving of this honor.

Vocational

The vocational award goes appropriately to Novie Mae Ray. She has remained true to her ambition to become the perfect teacher of home economics. Her ambition to take this subject for four years made it necessary that she take the fourth year without receiving any credit. Not only does she have a vocational ability, but also she makes exceptionally good grades in her other subjects.

Dramatics

Anyone who saw Jane Wood's performance in last year's dramatic club production, "The Right Mr. Wright" will agree that she deserves the award she has received, the dramatic medal. Besides "The Right Mr. Wright," she has appeared in "Cinderella O'Reilly" and will be in this year's dramatic club play, which will be produced this month. Jane is a member of the Thespian Honor Society for Dramatics and the National Honor Society.

Athletics

Running, passing, blocking, or kicking, you'll always find Hardy Miller doing his best for his team. Hardy was captain of this year's team and helped win for the Lobos state championship last year. He was elected president of the student body at the beginning of the school year and has served very ably in that position. To him is given the athletic award for his steadiness and hard work in athletics.

English

One of the two boys receiving a position of honor graduate of the '39 graduating class, William Goodson is also to receive the English award. William is an outstanding student and went to District meet in the tennis division. He is a member of the National Honor Society and takes an active part in activities, especially sports. William had an average of 97.8.

Activities

As editor of the '39 Lobo annual Patsy Lacy has participated in a great many of the school activities this year. Last year she was treasurer of the student body and student council. This year she was made an honorary member of the council. Since her sophomore year in high school, Patsy has worked diligently in all school activities. For this active work, the activities award is given to Patsy Lacy.

Art

Credit for the posters which are seen around the school on all occasions is given to J. T. Terry. J. T. has been a member of the Art club for three years and with the help of other members act as the advertising organization in the school. With the help of J. T.'s work the school has put over many activities which he painted signs and advertised for. The art award is given to J. T. Terry.

Debate

The debate award goes to Louise Davis, winner of second place in the county debate and ranked as the best girl debater of the team. She won the right to enter this contest by competing with local debate pupils, and a medal also has been awarded to her by the Longview Parent Teachers Association for her ability in debating. Louise makes very high grades in all her subjects and is a member of the National Honor Society.

Mathematics

Because he has come through two years of Algebra, plain geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry with flying colors, the math award is given to Bobby Griffin. Bobby has made such good grades in math as well as all his other subjects that he has attained an average of 98.9 to make him third honor student of the graduating class. Bobby has been a member of the National Honor Society for the past two years.

Friendly Trek, 1949 Version, Draws Crowd To L. H. S.

The scene is in front of Dear Old Longview High School. The day is a beautiful one in the spring of 1949. Longview is having a Friendly Trek commemorating its 80 anniversary.

Our class was graduated just ten years before. Many of us have gone out into the world and have successful careers on the stage, in television, and in various other forms of the entertainment world. Many of us have stayed in Longview and have been successful in keeping up our grand traditions. Out of both groups many have returned today to see once again the place where they spent many of their happiest days which are now only fond recollections.

We take you now to L. H. S. The sun has been up for well over an hour, but there hasn't been a stir except for the birds in our one beauty tree, singing their joyous spring songs. The first people to appear are quite naturally, school teachers.

Margarete Beasley and Corrine Toews have taught in L. H. S. for the last five years. They hurry into the building to prepare for another day's grind.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimbrew Carson (Sue Jeanne Daly) are the next to arrive. They have been married for four years. Kimbrew is one of the most prominent young business men in Longview, and Sue Jeanne is very prominent in the Social Circle.

Silas Winkler is the next one to arrive. Sy is vice-president of Wilson and Winkler transfer company.

Bobby Griffin appears now. Bobby is in the math department of L. H. S. Tearing around the corner comes Miriam Moyer in a Dent-Proof ford. Miriam hasn't found a husband yet.

The crowd is pouring in faster now, and it's hard to see everyone.

Benny Jane Delafosse and Billy Katherine Ferguson are still chasing after the Kilgore boys. Billy K. has the captain of the football team and Benny Jane has the center.

Hardy Miller is one of the town's best lawyers, but he can't talk Cookie into marrying him.

Mack Camp has come trekking back to see "the old school" with Patsy Lacy. Mack is still courting Patsy via long distance.

Jewell Harrington is the Society Editor of the Longview News.

Judy Lyle has become an interior decorator and is going to furnish Maxine's home.

Bert Espy and James Chamberlain are aviators for the Airlines.

Weldon Hatten and Jack Peters are surveyors.

Andre Javelle, alias James Hineman, is the window designer at Penney's.

Imogene Oden is one of New York's foremost designers of fashions.

Another member of the class who is from New York is Pauline Pilon. Pauline is one of the "Chorus Cuties" from the Paradise.

Mary Lillian Williams has realized her ambition and has become a model.

Dick Nelson, Howard Harris, and George Whitley are still very eligible bachelors waiting for the right girl.

The sun is now beaming down from overhead and the ex-students come tearing out of the front door just as they were students once again.

Over there stands Mr. and Mrs. "Ox" Hodges (Jane Wood) and "Ox" Jr. Frank is president of the Gulf Distribution company.

Bobby Slade and Billy Bob Terrell are sporting their new spring suits. Bobby is one of the sons of Slade and Sons Men Store, and Billy Bob is a dentist.

Coleen Grant has broken a stage engagement to return home for the trek. She was starred with Johnnie James in "Love's Moment"

Buddy Akin still seems to be courting D. J. Rawlinson. Buddy spends his time coaching football and basketball here at L. H. S., and D. J. spends her time waiting for Buddy to propose.

After graduation a few of the D Phi K's teamed up and put the Dead End's kids out of business. A few of them are coming up the steps now.

Tom Landers is the jealous husband of Ouida Wiggins Landers. They say Tom spends all his time keeping other men out of a glance distance of Ouida.

Bette Jeanne Thomson is dressed up in a new spring suit from London, where she has been directing plays for the last two years. It has been whispered that Bette is in search of a husband and hopes to find one among her old school mates.

It appears that Dula Williamson has had a change of heart since we last saw her. She's with her new husband Tilman Perkins. They were married right after Tilman received his doctor's degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Newnham (Laura Frances) are another one of Senior of 1939

Graduation from high school is one of the most significant events in your life. It means the commencement of higher education or the beginning of work in some vocation. In either case it means severing the ties of friendship that have been yours for several years and the beginning of new ones. It means the break in the intimate circle of the home and beginning of an ever widening and enlarging circle of new interests and greater responsibilities. You are prepared as well as any group for meeting the ever enlarging scope of life; but your preparation, here in school, your success here, should not be the crowning achievement of life. In fact, your success in the future depends on your ability to adjust yourself in whatever place you find yourself and to make your environment rich by the experience with the good, the beautiful, and the usable. In other words, you should make your surroundings, and not permit them to make or break you.

The best wishes of the faculty go with you. May success be yours in every undertaking you make. Personally, I shall think of you as my friends, and want to assure you that I am your friend; perhaps next to your parents, I am most interested in your success in life.

L. H. S. Representatives Win Second Division In Marching

The Longview Lobo band left the school in two buses and with an instrument truck for San Antonio bright and early Thursday morning, April 20.

The route taken was by way of Palestine. On arriving in Austin, they had dinner on the "drag" at the University of Texas. Reaching San Antonio at six o'clock, the band departed immediately to the marching contest. Three bands took part in the marching before a crowd of 10,000 people. The judges awarded the "Lobo" band second division with a large silver cup, and the crowd gave them a tremendous applause.

The boys in the band were housed for the night in the Y. M. C. A. and the girls, across the street in the Texas Hotel.

Friday morning, April 21, was spent in sightseeing. Brackenridge zoo and sunken gardens were visited. After that came the Witte museum. Reptile gardens, San Jose mission, the old Spanish governor's palace, Santa Anna Cathedral, and carnival were visited also.

That afternoon the band took part in the "Battle of Flowers" parade. The parade was seven miles long and marched over a five mile route. The first part of the parade was finished before the last part began. Sixty-six bands took part in the parade. After the parade most of the members ate Mexican dinners. Later the Aztec theatre was visited. That night the boys swam in the Y. M. C. A. pool from 11 until 12.

Saturday morning, returning home, they stopped at Fort Sam Houston where the new fast rifles were seen in action. Randolph Field, Lando Park, and New Braunfels were visited before arriving in Austin about noon. Dinner was had at the University Common. After lunch the band visited the Capitol building and passed by the governor's mansion.

Time was taken out for a swim at Barton Springs, and then they were off for Waco where they arrived at 4:00 o'clock.

At two o'clock Sunday morning, the Lobo band arrived home, tired but having thoroughly enjoyed a most delightful trip.

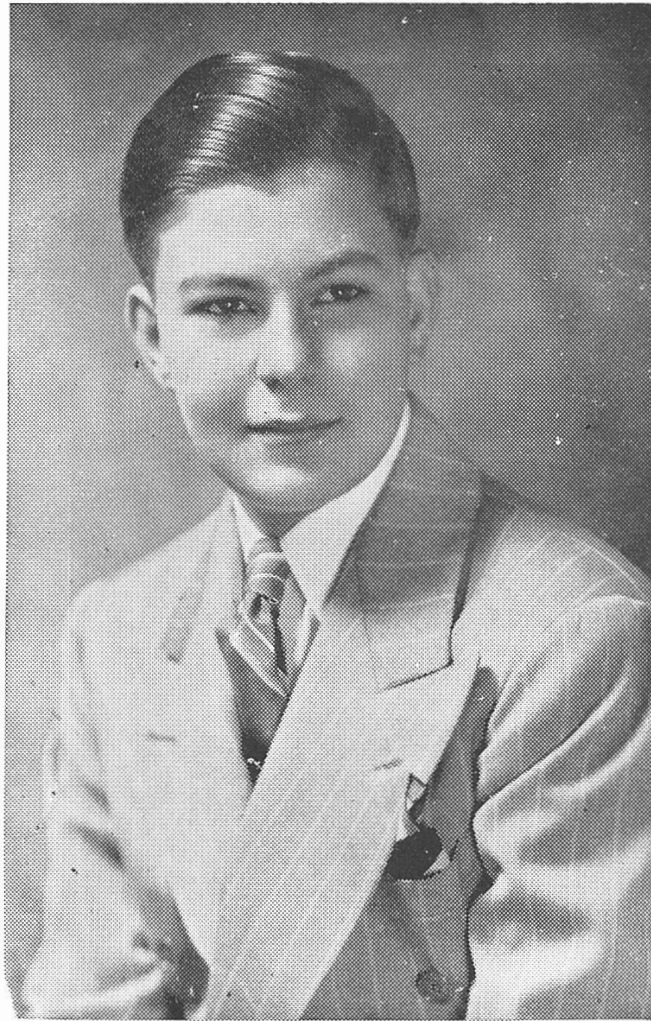

Longview's most prominent couples. Morris is a politician and still claims to be as tuff as anybody.

Bod Rushing and his wife Pat seemed to have made up again. They have little Patricia Neath and Bod Jr. with them.

Billie Sue Ayers has become president of The Women's Federated Club and Mrs. George McIlvane.

Maxine Lesche has become Mrs. Claud A. Hightower and is burning the girls up showing off her handsome millionaire husband. Incidentally, Maxine has just built a new little summer home on the Kilgore highway.

APPEARS IN SENIOR PLAY

Pictured above is Bobby Slade, prominent character in the senior play, "Growing Pains". He will demonstrate his talents tonight at the junior high auditorium when he plays the role of George McIntyre, the warring, young son of distracted parents.

George suffers through the agony of adolescence and the throes of puppy love. One second he is in the cosmic heights, while the next he grieves in the depths of despair. Bobby portrays this role in a very professional and realistic manner. He will keep you laughing all evening with his quick, witty sayings and antics.

SENIORS LEAVE MEMOIRS FOR REST OF SCHOOL

There are many things that the Juniors and Sophomores will remember in connection with the Seniors of '39. Some will just be little sayings; others will be acts. Not only will these fill the hearts of the under class-men, but they will also have a big place in the hearts of the Seniors.

Judy Lyle will be remembered as the president of the class of '39. She will also be remembered in connection with the flag pole, because her father gave it.

When the students see a baton, they will ever think of Kimbrew Carson who led the band two years.

Another football season will bring memories of Hardy Miller, who with his brother, Dick, led the Lobos to the State Championship in '37 and acted as Captain of the team in '38. Hardy will also be remembered as the student president in '38 and '39.

A typewriter will bring the thought of Lillie Jean Jones who went to State Meet in Typing.

Yearbooks and school papers will inspire memories of Jewel Harrington and Patsy Lacy, editors of the two school publications.

A loud laugh, a cute saying, or Jane Wood will make them laugh and think of Frank Hodges (Ox, to you).

"I don't have any of my homework." That sentence was used by Dorothy Ulin and Helen Martin every morning.

"Fanny, have you got your physics?"—direct quotation from Billy Bob Terrell.

A loaded-down car should remind the Sophs and Juniors of Margaret Ann (Maggie) Grizzle whose car was never empty.

Country kids and country ways will ever instill memories of Joe Coleman who was just a country boy at heart.

Stodious boys and girls who know how to play as well as work should bring forth memories of Bobby Griffin, Mary Owen Johnson, William Goodson, Marguaritte Beasley, and Corrine Toews.

When they see hitch-hikers waiting for a benevolent motorist, they will be reminded of Dick Nelson and Tom Landers who, one spring afternoon, hitch-hiked to Arlington. After that trip, they swore off.

"Well, Mr. York, I just can't stay in the Study Hall"—another direct quotation, from Jane Wood.

These small things may not mean much to an outsider, but the Senior class of '39 will never forget them.

"Twelfth Night" Presented to Seniors

A large majority of the senior English students greeted the records of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" with cries of approval.

William Goodson said, "I thought they were swell."

Paul Clements admitted that they were a lot better than he thought they would be.

Mary Owen Johnson said that she enjoyed them, but that they would have been better if they had been clearer.

"Surely did enjoy them," remarked Bob Joyner.

Edward Kranz, who was standing nearby, agreed whole heartedly with Bob.

Said Helen Hall, "The records were all right, but some of the voices sounded out of place."

Robert May said, "I guess they were all right."

When questioned about the play, Maxine Leche said, "Oh, yes; I enjoyed it."

"They were swell," said Corrine Toews.

"I believe that we would have understood the other plays better if we had, had records," remarked Marguerite Beasley.

Kilgore College Choice Of Greatest Number Of Seniors

While questioning the seniors about their plans for next fall, it was found that most of them plan to further their education by attending college or business school. A large number of these who plan to attend college will keep the home fires burning by going to Kilgore Junior College or by attending B. M. I.

Among those who plan to attend Kilgore are: Jewel Harrington, Marguerite Beasley, Charles Lee Moore, Eloree Webb, Dorothy Ulin, Helen Merle McHaney, Sue Jeanne Daly, May Forrest Denton, Antionette Woodall, Evelyn Holiman, Mary Elizabeth Hill, Delores Rea, Billie Katherine Ferguson, and James Chamberlain.

Those who will attend B. M. I. are Elizabeth Pearce, Hazel McCann, Miriam Moyer, and Louise Watters. Patsy Lacy and Dorothy Jane Rawlinson plan to attend Hockaday School in Dallas, while Frank Hodges and Silas Winkler will attend S. M. U.

Bette Jean Thompson, Lorraine Hayward, Roy Edwards, and Bob Rushing plan to attend Baylor University in Waco. Hardy Miller plans to go to The University of Texas.

Jane Wood and Billy Bob Terrell will enter Southwestern in Georgetown.

Margaret Ann Grizzle, and Helen Hall will attend T. C. U.

Robert Grimes will attend St. Marys in Marshall to be near his beloved Verhalens.

Corrine Toews will attend a junior college in Commerce and Judy Lyle will enter Lamarr Junior College in Beaumont.

While most of the students plan to attend Texas schools, several prefer schools in other states.

Attending schools in Louisiana will be: Helen Martin, who will go to Centenary; Bennie Jane Delafosse, who will attend a school in southern Louisiana; and Maxine Leshe, who will enter Louisiana Tech.

Coleen Grant will attend Christian College in Missouri.

Mary Lillian Williams hopes to go to Fairmont, in Washington, D. C.

A large number of graduates stated that they will attend college but have not yet made up their mind as to which it will be. To these—well, you had better start thinking and checking credits.

TYLER WINS FIRST IN ONE ACT PLAYS

"Heaven on Earth," a one act play, presented by pupils from Tyler High School, won first place in the regional meet held in Longview in the Junior High School auditorium, Friday, night, April 21.

"Helena's Husband," presented by Carthage won second place.

Third place went to Atlanta and fourth place to Paris. Both plays were "His First Dress Suit."

The stage was set after each of the plays by Manton Liverett, Joe Littlejohn, Bubba Dews, Tommy Kuykendall, and Arthur McWhirter.

Jimmy Layton was the stage manager.

Lois Cobb, Charlotte Corban, Helen Ruth Bruton, Helen June Huff, and Billie Katherine Ferguson were the ushers.

Classical League Meets

Members of the Junior Classical League met Thursday, April 27 for a short program.

Miss Nell Ingram called the meeting to order. Eugene Bistline made a talk on "Roman Buildings." Members of the club sang songs in Latin. The remainder of the time was spent with pictures concerning Latin subjects.

SPORT SPARKS—

From all corners of Texas, track stars and near stars will converge on Austin today for the most important event in schoolboy track, the state meet. Claude, sparked by Doug Callen will be the favorites. To the victors will go fame and perhaps college scholarships; to the losers, heartbreak. To all this column extends congratulations on reaching the state meet. All contestants should remember that a race well run and into which he puts his best is better than all the ribbons in Texas.

Now that the athletic season is over as far as Longview High is concerned, this seems to be an appropriate time to review the year's accomplishments. In football, the Lobos placed third in the District 9 race. Over the full season, the Lobos won 5, lost 2 and tied 2. It was not a very successful season as far as victory was concerned, but the boys hope to do better next year. Hardy Miller captained the Lobos this year; Otto Paul Burandt will lead them next year.

Paced by Captain William Lee Knox and Ross Chapin, who accounted for 37 points between them, the Lobos swept through the county race undefeated to garner the Gregg County Basketball Championship. They lost out to Winnboro, however, in the District Meet. Lettermen were Knox, Chapin, Winkler, Freudiger, Goodson, Gaw, Buchanan, Milner, Scott, Skidmore, and Fambrough.

After losing their first game to Gladewater, the Lobo volleyball team came from behind to retain their county championship. Then came the disastrous District Meet and Wills Point. The Wills Point boys swamped the Lobos 15-3, 15-8. The squad was composed of Winkler, Goodson, Buchanan, Milner, Tatum, Freudiger, Scott, Gaw, Edwards, Taylor, Mackey, and Kennedy.

The Lobo track team finished a strong second in the county meet; but, handicapped by injuries they only finished sixth in the District Meet. Miller, Johnson, and Skidmore ran in the regional, but Miller, who took third in the high hurdles, was the only one to qualify for the state meet.

William Goodson, and Silas Winkler took the county tennis championship in senior doubles, but lost to defending state champion Athens in the district. The playground ball team was defeated in the county meet by Gladewater, 5-3.

LONGVIEW LOSES TENNIS MEET

Longview's tennis entry was defeated 6-4, 4-6, 6-2 in the district meet in Tyler, April 14, by the Athens Hornets, who went on to win the title.

Longview reached the second round by virtue of a bye in the first round. Goodson and Winkler were way off their shots and not once displayed the form that gave them the county title.

Hehr and Noble, the Athens double team, hit the highest stride against the Lobos, but dropped off their top form against Tyler, with still enough to win against this mediocre team.

Billy Owens of Tyler captured the singles crown by defeating the Kilgore entry, 6-2, 6-1.

M. I. Second award will be a cash prize of $25.00. Every graduate participating will be recognized with a special story and photo which will appear with the copy he wrote.

Texarkana Wins Regional; Arp Comes Second

Texarkana High School's track and field team won the annual Region 4 meet here Saturday, April 21 by scoring 20 points, four and one-half more than their nearest opponent.

Arp was close behind the Tigers with 15 1-2 counters, while Big Sandy with 10 points came in third.

Rawlinson Represents Longview At Convention

Dorothy Jane Rawlinson represented Longview at the East Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention in Beaumont, Monday and Tuesday, of last week.

Dorothy Jane has been a drum major in the high school band for the past two years. She is one of the stars of this year's Dramatic Club play as well as being a charter member of the local troop of the National Thespians.

Backward Look Reveals Actors And Sweethearts

Three years ago, this year's graduates were being graduated from Junior High.

At this time the Junior High Paper was "The Weekly Blast," sponsored by Miss Grace Mays. The staff consisted of Louise Davis, Dorothy McAllister, Grant Donaldson, Bob Slaughter, Roy Edwards, and Besse-gene Little.

Several of the names and faces are still familiar around Longview High; while some of them are just memories. Dorothy McAllister and Besse-gene Little moved away from Longview several years ago—Dorothy to Oklahoma and Besse-gene to Corpus Christi, Bob Slaughter, beloved by all, has been deceased three years.

"Paints and Patches," an operetta under the direction of Miss Phyllis Brannon, was an outstanding feature that year. The cast included: Helen Matrin, Lon Livsey, Ben Bob James, Algie Glover, James Taylor, Eleanor Rhea LeBus, Iris Gene Futor, Helen Merle McHaney, Selma Riff, Besse-gene Little, Raymond Williams Woodrow Grooms, Jimmy Leake, Robert Hallum, Delfred Few, and Jo Ann Lewis.

The girl's baseball team was unusual, winning most of the games played. Doris East played catcher; Helen Hall, pitcher; Marjorie Vas-cocu, first base; Edith Schrimsher, short-stop; Ura Ryan, third base; Imogene Jones, right field; and Wynell Cullefer, left field.

CUPIDS CUPLETS—1936

Helen Martin—Kimbrow Carson. Margaret Rumbaugh—Althis Sheffield.

Betty Newman—Bobby Slade. Mary Elizabeth Hill—Robert Henderson.

Helen June Huff—Robert Hallum. Caroline Booth—Grant Donaldson. Edith Schrimsher—Leo Sapp.

Marie Wood—E. C. Johnson. The outstanding students were much the same ones that they are now.

Mary Owen Johnson led the class in scholarship. She also won the Latin Tournament along with Helen Hall.

Outstanding declamers were: Caroline Booth, Margaret Ann Hall, Jane Booth, Juanita Ray, Louis Seliger, Willie Marvin Jones, and Ben Bob James.

Pauline Pilon and Vivian West represented Longview Junior High in spelling at the Interscholastic League meet.

Herbert Skidmore and John Owens represented Junior High in tennis doubles, while Doyle Craver represented it in tennis singles.

It seems a long time—those three years—but it hasn't changed much, has it?

Three years we've been with you, But now we're going away. We will think of you our school Though we're very far away.

We've studied in your classes, But some of us would play. Who knows? We may regret that In some very far off day.

We hope of most of us you're proud, Of others, you may bow your head in shame.

But remember if you're sorry, It isn't for you to take the blame.

We are the class of '39 Soon we'll say good-bye, But we will always think of you With a heart-ache and a sigh.

We're leaving you the Juniors, The Sophs. and Freshmen, too Here's hoping they improve you In everything they do.

Oh, how we hate to go. We're sad we all know why. It's because we hate to leave you You, our Longview Senior High. —Paul Clements.

Methodist Church Gives Seniors Banquet

The First Methodist Church entertained the Senior Class with an informal banquet Thursday night, April 25 at seven o'clock.

An interesting program was presented by talented students from Southwestern University. Clever orations and songs were given by students from Lon Morris College.

Dr. John Bergen, president of Southwestern University and Dr. Peoples, president of Lon Morris College, introduced the entertainers.

Dr. Joseph Yarborough of Southern Methodist University talked to the Seniors.

Wilkinson Names Track Lettermen

Track lettermen were announced the past week by athletic Director C. N. Wilkinson.

The boys lettering in track are as follows: Malcom Blackwell, key member of the relay team; William Lee Knox member of the relay team and meter; Billy Bob Barton, county high jump champion; Hardy Miller, member of the relay team and champion of the 120 yard high hurdles of District 15, Herbert Skidmore low hurdles, Junior Dunaway member of the relay team and county champ of the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes; and Fred Johnson county broad jump and javelin champion.

Blackwell is the only boy to receive a letter for track for the third year. Barton is a two letter man, while the remainder of the boys are receiving their first letter.

Barton, Dunaway, and Johnson are the only ones that will be eligible for competition next year.

The trackmen will receive their sweaters at the close of school at the same time the basketball lettermen receive their sweaters.

"L" Club Presents Betty Robinson

Betty Robinson, Olympic track champion, appeared at the high school, April 20 under the sponsorship of the "L" Club.

In 1928 at Amsterdam, Miss Robinson won the 100 meter dash; and in 1936, at Berlin she was key member of the winning relay team. Miss Robinson represents the finest type of young womanhood; and in addition to achieving an enviable place among the women track stars, she has retained her feminine charm.

She was discovered by a high school coach who saw her running to catch a train. Coaches were counting heavily on Betty for the 1932 Olympic, but she was injured in an airplane crash that kept her out of competition until 1936.

Miss Robinson discussed the Olympic games of 1928 and 1936 and some of the outstanding participants. She talked on girls and sports and concluded with seven specifications for the typical American girl. She especially stressed participation of girls in athletics.

Two New Courses To Be Offered Here

Two new courses, French 2 and Laboratory of Industries will be added to Longview High School Curriculum next year.

The Laboratory of Industries will be taught in the new shop building. Different types of work to be taught in this course are forging, foundry, welding, metal work, wood work, and mechanical drawing.

Latin 4 taught by Miss Nell Ingram and choral club by Miss Phyllis Brannon were affiliated this year.

Ferguson Represents L. H. S.

Billie Katherine Ferguson represented Longview High School at the "May Frolic" which was sponsored by the Blue Brigade of Tyler, April 28.

The program which was given in the high school gym included the coronation, a floor show, and a dance.

"THE" CONCERT

Ignace Jan Paderewski! That name, in large blue letters, stared me in the face as I mounted the steps of the Fair Park Auditorium in Dallas Wednesday evening, April nineteenth. After finding my seat in the lower floor of the gigantic auditorium, I waited in breathless suspense for the concert to begin. The enormous stage, orchestra pit, beautiful decorations on the walls and ceiling, and the thousands of people who poured into the building filled me with awe.

The crowd began to grow restless about eight-thirty. At every rustle of the curtain, someone would begin to clap, and by nine o'clock, everyone was sitting in the edge of his seat, excited and breathless, eagerly awaiting the parting of the curtain in the center of the stage. An attendant came out, adjusted the chair and tested the piano. He retired, and several tense minutes later, the curtain parted once more to admit—Paderewski. At that moment the entire audience, about four thousand, rose in reverence to a great man, Ignace Jan Paderewski, the first premier of the Polish Republic, famous composer, and the world's greatest pianist since Liszt, now engaged in his last American tour.

The tall, very feeble, white haired, seventy-eight year old man bowed several times to the admiring audience and looking like almost anything but a virtuoso pianist, proceeded slowly to take his place in his traditional, little, red, fringed chair at the long grand piano. Of course, this aged, tottering man could have little of the fire and exciting virtuosity of the Paderewski forty years ago; but, nevertheless, from the Hayden Variations to the closing notes of the last encore, Paderewski, with this unsurpassable, exquisitely beautiful, singing tone, gave superb interpretations of some of the world's greatest and most beautiful music, including Mozart's "A Minor Rondo", Beethoven's stormy, gigantic "Appassionata Sonata", one each of Chopin's ballads nocturnes, and mazurkas, Schubert's "A Flat Impromptu", and, as a magnificent conclusion, the Liszt transcription of "Isolde's Libestod" from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde". Even after two encores, a valse by Chopin, and a "Moment Musicale" by Schubert, the audience would not leave until an attendant came out and closed the piano.

I shall always remember, as one of the most important events of my life, this concert by Paderewski. I greatly appreciated this opportunity, and because of his age, I feel sure that this is the last tour that he will ever make in the United States.

ADDS COLOR TO SENIOR PLAY

Margaret Rumbaugh has the leading feminine role in the Senior play, "Growing Pains." She plays the part of Terry, the young daughter who is experiencing for the first time love and growing up. Margaret, because of her charming individuality, plays the part well and lends much color to the play with her sincere actions.

MANY TEACHERS TO ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL

Summer vacations are just around the corner. To many it will be a time of play, but to still others it will be a time of hard work. Summer school will be attended by pupils who didn't quite make the grade and also by teachers who desire to expand their knowledge in a higher field of learning. Pupils and teachers will be separated for a period of three months—flung to the three corners of the earth until that familiar old school bell is heard once more in September.

Many teachers will go to summer school. Among these Miss Ruth Hilliard, Miss Bertha Mae Treadaway, Denton; Miss Nell Ingram, The University of California; Miss Exa Matlock, Columbia University, and Miss Gertrude Curran, S. M. U. Miss Violet McLaurin will teach in summer school and then visit Mexico City. Miss Hughes plans to stay at home and catch up on her sleep as does Miss Jane Etheridge. Miss Eunice Ware will go to Austin.

Students are going here, there, and everywhere. Vera Gray will spend her vacation in Marlowe, Oklahoma; Elton Anthony, in Missouri and Oklahoma; Mary Freudiger, in Dallas; Jean Tooke, Nacogdoches; Laura Francis Wood, West Texas and Camp; Ouida Wiggins, Oklahoma City and Louisville, Kentucky; D. J. Anderson, New Mexico; Lorene Miller, Colorado; William Goodson, Colorado; Helen Martin, Kansas City; Eva Ruth Wood, New Orleans, Galveston, and Ft. Worth; Billie Louise McBrayer, Houston and West Texas; Doris Henderson, San Antonio; Elaine Foote, Oklahoma; Bette Jean Thompson, Galveston and Houston; Myrtle Southerland, Austin; Louise Watters, Mineral Wells; Francis Todd, New Mexico; Betty Lou Hart, South Carolina; Sally Horton, Dallas; Bodd Rushing, Illinois.

Several pupils will visit the Worlds Fair at either San Francisco or New York. These are: Tillman Perkins, Frank Hodges, Moris Newnham, Corrine Toews, Pat Neath, Cookie Riff, and Coleen Grant.

Classes To Have School Exhibit

The various departments of the high school will present a school exhibit for the parents Thursday evening, May 11.

Measurements Reveal Unusual Students

Measurements for the senior caps and gowns revealed unusually tall and short seniors in the school.

It was revealed that Elizabeth Pearce is the tallest girl in the senior class, with Imogene Oden second.

Billy Bob Terrell, Colly Hime, Buddy Akin, Charles Burandt, Aubrey Curry, Emory Barton, John Elam, and Charles Reese tower above six feet.

Two girls in the class are under five feet. They are Jewell Harrington and Corrine Toews. Bennie Frances Williams, Margaret Rumbaugh, Mary Elizabeth Graves, Lillie Jean Jones, Mary Owen Johnson, and Patsy Lacy are under five feet two.

Bobby Slade is the shortest boy in the class with Grant Donaldson second.

Journalists Visit News Office

The journalism class of the high school went through the News and Journal office to see a paper in actual print yesterday.

The class was shown through the different departments of the building and were presented with an evening paper just as it came off the press. Questions were asked and answered during the visit.

Rotary Convention To Be In Longview

Several thousand Rotarians and their wives will visit Longview for the District Rotary Convention, May 14, 15, 16.

Mr. Hubert Johnston of Waco will preside at the meeting. Longview is the first East Texas City to be host to the convention in several years.

Sunday evening the pulpits of the churches of the city will be filled by Rotarians and preachers of cities nearby.

Monday at noon four banquets will be held at the Baptist Church, the Methodist Church, The First Christian Church, and the Hilton Hotel.

Programs for each of the banquets will be conducted by visiting club.

The Governor's Banquet and Ball will take place at seven o'clock at the high school. The music and floor show will be furnished by Ligion Smith's orchestra.

Tuesday at noon one large banquet will be held in the annex of the Hilton Hotel for all the visiting Rotarians and their wives. All of the local service clubs are also invited to attend the banquet.

Garbos and Taylors Meet Backstage of "Growing Pains"

Garbos and Taylors are assembled back stage for rehearsal of "Growing Pains" and some real growing pains are received as those sophisticated seniors lose their dignity and become what you might call "ruffies and rowdies."

The stage door opens and in come Helen Merle McHaney. My but she's mad! That big brute has taken the care again.

Margaret Ann Grizzle, Helen Hall, and Billie Katherine Ferguson might be compared with "Three little fishes in a little bitty pool." That's probably where they will end if "Grizzle" keeps up her record of hitting the road only when it seems absolutely necessary.

Anyone would swear that Louise Davis, Bob Barnes, and Silas Winkler had gone back to their second childhood. The very idea of playing "jacks" at their age.

The rehearsal is in full swing, but what is the laughing going on over in the corner? Well, of all things, a "chinker chek" game is being played. Miss Hilliard seems to have won championship by hook or crook. The crook method seems to be the most popular.

Coleen Grant acts the perfect angel behind scenes; that is, what time is left after her exhibitions of how to drive people completely, absolutely nuts. He usually succeeds. Just ask the members of the cast.

Believe it or not, there is one quiet moment back stage during rehearsal! Have you heard about "The Dead End Scene?" Your missing something. If it can have such hilarious reactions on the cast; wonder what it can do to you?

Kimbrew Carson Rated Best in U. S.

Kimbrew Carson, drum major of the Longview High School Band was rated among the best baton twirlers in the U. S. by the judges at the band finals held in Abilene last Friday night.

Only seven other drum majors earned first division rating and because of the large number of winners and their ability, the recommendation for special awards was made. Arno Dean Seldan of Henderson was one of the other seven to receive the first division rating.

Algie Glover and Grant Donaldson won second place in solos while Jack Smaha won third place.

A trumpet trio composed of Eunice Parker, Billy Curry and Grant Donaldson won second place.

Paul D. Miller suggests to J. T. Terry: "Let's cut classes this afternoon." J. T. says he can't do it; he needs the sleep.

ON THE SPRING FEVER LIST:

Fred Cobb, just recovering from Elizabeth A. McHaney affair.

W. L. Knox, who is still running from these sophomores.

Faye Stevens needs a remedy for the Wayne Lowry dreams.

Mary Jo Campbell is also on the list.

Betty Jean Thompson and Mary Eliz. Hill have not suffered any this spring.

Here's the latest bed time story for all good seniors. It's a true one, so you'll enjoy it all the more.

It took place at the skating rink, time unknown. Leo Sapp, and Edgar Worsham got some eggs to throw at niggers. Edgar was wearing a felt hat with the crown crushed down and on the top of his head were four or five eggs.

Imogene Oden, present at the rink, dared Elizabeth Pierce to hit him on the head. She did and you know the rest. He chased her all over the place and pelted eggs at her, but she made good her escape. Poor Edgar had to stop at a filling station to wash his hair.

Moral: Leave other people's eggs alone.

Bien, Au revoir mes amies. The space is becoming smaller and smaller.

Seniors Leave Parting Gifts To Lowly Sophs And Juniors

Seniors will rise and seniors will fall, But this year seniors leave the best will of all.

The seniors say farewell and with it leave their abilities to the lowly sophomores and juniors. Mary Owen Johnson leads out by giving her Latin ability to Eugene Bistline. Ruby Mae Horton receives Mary Lillian Williams' bookkeeping book, and Lily Jean Jones wills her typewriter to Elaine Bridges. Robert Grimes and Pauline Pilon leave their giggling ability to no one because no one can equal them.

Roy Edwards leaves his ability to talk fast to Ernestine (Pinky) Wilson who won't need it. Frank (Ox) Hodges leaves his pestering to Malcolm Elliot. Billie Katherine Ferguson wills her beauty to the someone beautiful who can never take her place. Maxine (Stinky) Leche leaves her gum-chewing ability to Maud Lynette Norton.

Coleen Grant wills her dramatic talents to Bootsie James. Benny Jane Delafosse gives her jitterbugism to Laura Francis Wood. Reba Galoob leaves her "brains" to Mary Lou Harris. Miriam Moyer gives her vocal cords to her double Marian Moyer. Jewel Harrington leaves her journalism talents to Jean Blaylock.

Dick Nelson leaves his reckless driving to Fred Cobb. Helen Martin leaves her heart with E. C. Johnston. Hardy Miller gives his football to Don Fambrough. James Hinaman leaves his designing to anyone who wants it. Paul (Percy) Clemnets and Maxine Ford give their poem writing to any dreamer.

Ouida Wiggins wills her flirting ability to Jane Booth. Lorraine Hayward gives her primping to Delfred Few. Ross Chapin wills his conceitedness to Ben Bob James, who definitely does not need it. Kimbrow Carson gives his baton to Jack Smaha. Opal Nichols wills her figure to any venus.

Bobby Slade leaves his "height" to Phil Jordon and Evelyn Holiman wills her stage fright to any "hooper." William Goodson leaves his good looks to little bud, Jimmy. Tommy Anderson wills his perseverance to "go on" to Carl Goodgae. Marion Sitton gives his drawing ability to Byron Hampton.

Helen Hall leaves her democratic spirit to anyone that feels democratic.

Thus ends the will and the seniors hope you'll be satisfied with your gifts and make good use of them.

Seniors Whip Juniors 19-0

Seniors and juniors met in their annual grudge battle last Tuesday, with the powerful seniors the victors by a 19-0 count.

The juniors were never dangerous and only made a few long gains by long passes.

The seniors tricks and power made them almost invincible to the weaker junior team.

The three senior scores were made by Hatten, Miller, and Knox. Rushing converted the last touchdown to give the seniors their odd point.

Outstanding in the senior team was Sapp, Miller, Hatten, Rushing, Akin, Knox, and Gaw, while Fambrough, Sapp, Henderson, and Cantrell were the outstanding juniors.

The seniors had been practicing only one week and had only a fourteen man squad.

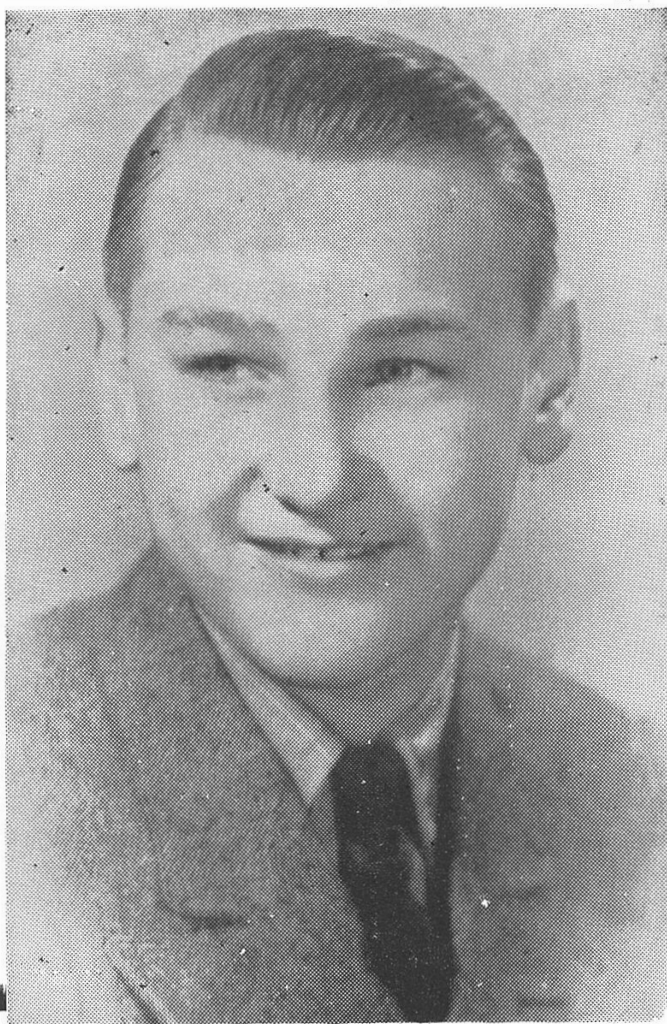

Louise, Hardy Receive Medals

For their splendid work in debate this year, Louise Davis and Hardy Miller were awarded medals in assembly, Wednesday, May 3.

The medal for the best girl debater was offered by the Parent Teachers Association. Mr. Matt Dawson, Longview attorney, presented the medal for the best boy debater.

In assembly Wednesday, Mr. Dawson presented both medals to the winners.

ACTS IN SENIOR PLAY

Tommy Anderson has the ambition to be a ranch owner after leaving school but now he is Professor McIntyre in the Senior play. Tommy is one of the foremost actors in the senior high, and he has a good part in the play.

What Book Would You Choose?

Several students have been confronted with the question, "If you should be marooned on a desert island where there was no food or source of entertainment, and you could have one book, what book would you choose? A wide variety of answers were given while some, fearing they might sound silly, refused to answer.

Malcolm Elliot, always ready to accommodate, said he would take a Wood's Gazette. Maybe you don't catch on but Malcolm has a crush on Emilie Wood. Now do you see light?

Melba Stovall would choose a book of adventure because she enjoys adventure books more than other type of stories.

Bruce Gaw's answer may be a little wiser than it sounds. He would take a book of formula for making artificial foods. There is only one hitch to Bruce's idea; he would need a few supplies to make the artificial foods.

In despair Billie Louise McBrayer replied, "I'd take Gone With The Wind" if I ever get my hands on it before I left. Incidentally, Billie has been trying to get that celebrated book out of the library for the last six weeks.

In order to be prepared for life when and if he got off the island,

Jim Roach would take a book on psychology; in other words, how to live.

Sensible answers came from Mildred Smith and Christine Wilson. They would take the Bible because it has every type of literature in it and also because it never grows dull.

A little late to learn but Louis Guise stated that he'd prefer a book on how to swim in ten easy lessons. Maybe you've got something there under the circumstances.

The reporter finally got around to Miss Alice PerLee, the librarian, and naturally she gave the correct answers. Miss PerLee said that the best answer to the question would be the Bible, the second best would be Shakespeare's works, and the third best would be a good anthology of poetry.

School Secretaries To Hold Meeting

The East Texas Association of School Secretaries will hold a meeting at Kilgore Saturday, May 15.

The association is composed of secretaries from both colleges and high schools and will be presided over by Miss Juanita Chamberlain of Longview.

Miss Wade Moore of Kilgore will have charge of the program and the topic of discussion will be the book, "She Strives to Conquer."

DON'T MAKE DATE CARRY MAKE-UP; BE SWEET, INNOCENT

Wow! Girls, here's how the boys think you should act on a date.

Kimbrow has virtually upset Emily Post's throne. Get a load of the following pointers he submitted: A girl should always be ready when the boy gets there even if he is late. She should always have a pocket in the dress she is going to wear. The reason is that a boy does not enjoy being responsible for his dates lipstick, powder, and other small things a girl must have on a date. Always let the boy think of a place to go, because he knows how much it is going to cost him, and he knows how much money he can spend. Don't talk about all the other boys you have dated; talk about things a boy likes or just keep quiet. Don't go out and sit with other boys at a dance, when you get warm, but ask your date to go with you and he is usually more than willing to go. Don't eat onions on your hamburgers. Remember, a boy likes for a girl to keep him company. (Don't keep you back to him). Wear lipstick that doesn't come off easily.

Quoting Knottie Bivins: a girl should be dressed appropriately for whatever the occasion may be. (And incidentally, I prefer brunettes.)

"Don Juan", Ramon Baca, said he liked girls who were serious.

Said Buddy Akin, "I don't like for girls to be too irresistible."

Quote Ben Bob James, "I like for 'em to be hard to get and not too sophisticated."

This is what Don Fambrough said, Verbatim, "On a date I want my girl to be sweet and quiet. I want her to enjoy the moon and all nature. Not to always be wanting to go to the show or get something to eat, and not always be saying, 'I gotta go home.'"

William Lee stated that he wanted his girl to have nice manners at all times.

And listen to this! Gus Parker said he liked for his girls to be sweet and innocent!

Richard Henderson advises girls not to talk too much but to be intelligent.

Jimmy Layton's idea of a girl on a date is one who is out for a very good time; she doesn't talk much, but keeps up an intelligent conversation.

"Don't be late, and don't apologize for your looks; be beautiful, but not dumb!" declared Joe Coleman.

John Owens says, "Just so they do what I say."

"Nick" Carter 'lows as how he wants the girls to dress and act nice. (Wonder whom he means?)

Layton, Huff Win Jitterbug Contest

First prize of seven dollars in the high school Jitterbug Contest, held at Palm Isle, April 17, in connection with the Treks program, went to Jimmy Layton and Helen June Huff. Benny Jane Delafosse and Billy Bob Terrell won second place, the prize being three dollars.

Several other high school couples entered the contest and to every contesting couple went a ticket to the dance held the following night.

EMOTIONS CONFLICT OVER END OF SCHOOL

Three more weeks of school! Then the mighty seniors will receive, in the traditional marter board and gown, their long awaited sheep-skin. Then the juniors will be seniors and even the sophomores will be a half grade-higher.

Naturally students have their own opinions of school's being so near an end. Our wandering reporter, therefore, collected a few of the opinions.

After signing a pass very elegantly, Marguerite Beasley remarked, "I think they ought to let us go."

Johnny Bishop drawled, upon being told that nine more weeks of school remained, "That's still too much."

Imogene Oden after practically no thinking at all said, "I wish it was all over."

Helen Wilson just glanced around and wasn't long in answering, "Gosh, I'm glad."

Bobbie Griffin (Red) was sort of nonchalant; he just grinned and said, "That suits me."

The reporter was beginning to think no one was sad that ole L. H. S. would soon dismiss its classes; but at long last, Mary Jo Campbell shivered and chattered, "Gee, it just scares me to death."

Lilly Jean Jones, being of a suspicious nature refused to impart her opinion. "I know you," she exclaimed, "and I'm not going to say a word."

Billie Louise McBrayer, intelligent junior, said, "Why, I'll be lost without school."

Barbara Holloway, a green sophomore, whistled and imparted the secret information that "I'll be glad, because this daily assignment work is getting me down."

Joyce Wilson, another sophomore fully agreed and said that was her opinion nicely spoken.

We didn't ask Lon Livsey anything for he looked too comfortable to disturb, sprawled out in two study hall desks. It was figured that he probably likes school.

Well, everyone is entitled to his own opinion, be it good or otherwise; but it's our opinion that students are going to be lost without classes to skip this summer.

Dramatic Class To Present "320 College Avenue"

Miss Ethel Kaderli, director of the dramatic class, will present "320 College Avenue" at the junior high school auditorium Friday, May 26, at 8:15 p. m.

"320 College Avenue" played with great success for nine weeks at Hollywood Community Theater. The play opens with a party in full swing at a sorority house, co-educational college. Suddenly while the lights are out and a blue light is playing back and forth on the dancers, a girl screams and a moment later the boy with whom she is dancing is found lying on the floor, dead, mysteriously murdered. Judy, with whom the boy was dancing, is the most popular girl in college and also the cleverest. When the hard-boiled detective fails to solve the mystery with the rough, hard methods, Judy persuades him to turn the case over to her. Then alone with the girls, boys, Dean of Women, and Dean of Men, Judy uses her own technique and has almost discovered who killed the boy when suddenly another boy is mysteriously murdered. In quick succession comes thrills and laughs for the audience, culminating in a surprise finish that gives the play a wholly unexpected but hilarious ending.

The cast consists of the entire dramatic class.

Students Take Part In Friendly Trek

The students of Longview High School took part in the "Friendly Trek" in several ways during the days of April 16, 17, and 18.

The play "Tell Off The Years" had several students in the cast. They were Jack Smaha, Margaret Ann Hall, Malcolm Elliot, and Phyllis Phillips.

The art club under the direction of Miss Jane Etheridge painted the scenery used in the play. Members of the club, who helped were Mary Katherine Anderson, Juanita Dickson, Fred Rice, Morris Caseu, Bob Barnes, and J. T. Terry. The members of the brass band in the "Texas Going Dry" scene were Walter Dobbs, Phil Carnahan, Cecil Bratcher, George Freeman, Kenneth Miller and Dale Stamper. Miss Phyllis Brannon provided music between scenes.

The Boy Scouts of both the Junior and Senior schools acted as guides to the Trekkers.

Roy Greg Speaks To Student Body

Mr. Roy Greg, Executive Secretary of the Allied Youth Movement of the United States, spoke to the student body, Friday morning, April 14.

Mr. Greg, whose headquarters are in Washington, D. C., travels throughout the country talking to the youth of America. His nationwide organizations are non-partisan, non-political, and non-religious.

He talked to all students interested in the Youth Forum after the assembly adjourned. R. L. Speight appointed Hardy Miller chairman. Hardy, in turn, appointed a committee to carry on the organizations. Those on the committee were Bette Jeanne Thomson, Maud Lynette Norton, Jean Tooke, Bruce Gaw, Joe Kennedy, Lon Livsey, and Knottie Bivins.

Classical League To Give Banquet

Junior Classical League is planning a costume banquet and also an open house to be given before the close of school.

Costumes representing gods, goddesses, and heroes will be worn, and a prize will be given for the best costume.

The open house will be given for the 8 and 9 graders in Junior High School.

Remember Back In First Ward?

Remember back in First Ward School when:

Judy Lyle turned her ankle at one of Mary Lou's picnics.

Buddy Akin and Eleanor Rhea Le-Bus had the biggest romance in school.

Annette Woodall took Gene Richardson away from Judy after Albert Robinson left town.

Everybody went to the show on Saturday afternoon to see the serial.

Robert Grimes and Emily Bette Rozor always sat together on Saturdays.

The boys would meet the girls at Anderson's store and walk to school with them.

Buddy Akin could whip any kid in his room.

There was a big game of wink 'em in Mary Lou's attic one rainy Saturday afternoon.

Everybody had a good time at Ruth Aronld's parties.

After school on a hot afternoon the boys rode their bicycles to Yates and went swimming.

J. T. Terry thought Mickey Marie Carmack didn't like him anymore after Ross Chapin moved to town.

James Hineman and Carolyn Booth were in love.

Mary Owen cried because they tried to put her back a grade.

Vera and Glenn Adle got double promoted and Armantine didn't and then Glenn flunked.

Howard Harris was very fond of Marion Audrey Ford.

Jane Wood was in love with Tilman Perkins and Tilman was in love with Eleanor Rhea who was in love with Buddy.

Mariorie Vascon and Theba Elliott were the most popular girls in the high sixth.

Robert Bopped Carolyn over the head with a pen staff.

Don Fambrough wouldn't have anything to do with girls.

Delfred fell in love with practically every boy she saw.

All these things seem so long ago but they will never be far away from the heart.

TURPIE SLADE TO GIVE CHAINS

Turpie Slade, local merchant, will present the senior boys with watch chains this year as his graduation gift.

Mr. Slade makes this an annual affair by presenting the boys with something every year. For the past several years Mr. Slade has been giving belts and buckles with the graduation year on the buckle. The chains will be here about the 20 of May, and the boys are asked to call at the store for them.

Teachers Sponsor William P. Blatz

Dr. William P. Blatz of Toronto University, psychologist of the Dionne quintuplets, gave three lectures at the Junior High School Auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

April 25, Dr. Blatz spoke on "Character Building" at 8 p. m. The following day at 10 a. m. he spoke on "Honesty" and at 3 p. m. he spoke on "Discipline."

The lectures sponsored by the Gregg County Teachers Unit were free.

PLAYS LEADING ROLE

Pictured above is Colleen Grant who has a leading role of "Prudence Darling" in the senior play, "Growing Pains", tonight. Prudence is a flirting, young sophisticate who believes herself to be the vampire of her age.

She ruins many a young man's heart and has all the girls looking on helplessly with green-eyes.

Colleen is a member of the Dramatic club and Theispian National Honor Society in Longview High. She has participated in many plays this past semester.

The school year of 1938-39 will be in the past in only a few more days. The members of the senior class have worked diligently and faithfully for eleven years. Graduation from high school will mean a new beginning in your lives, an opportunity to apply the theory you have accumulated over a period of years. This new life will mean that more real thinking will be necessary; you will have to use your judgment in making decisions. During your school career thus far, you have been in one of two classes. You are one who has done some thinking or you are one who has permitted the other fellow to think for you. It is well to do some of both, but you must not become a rubber stamp. There has never been a time when our democracy was in greater need of real constructive thinkers. You as an individual will determine your contribution to society; you are the only person who has power to execute or suppress the secret workings of your mind. Your success will consist of your ability to diagnose and analyze problems and give the right answers. Your answers must be "yes" or "no". You can not stay on the fence. A good philosophy of life is: The world owes me nothing but I owe the world the best there is within me.
