L.H.S. Gives Thanks For First Paper

Pageant of Song, Readings Part of Holiday Assembly

Harris' Home Room Offers Appropriate Program For Thanksgiving Day

A program of Thanksgiving and of praise was given by Miss Mary Jane Harris' home room this morning in assembly.

The program was begun by the recitation of the 150th Psalm, and was brought to a close with a prayer from this year's Pulitzer prize play, "You Can't Take It with You."

New song books, given to the school by the P. T. A. were put into use during the program, which offered a cavalcade of song. Mrs. Lawrence Birdsong played the piano accompaniment.

The master of ceremonies was Billie Kathryn Ferguson.

Members of the home room came in dressed as Puritans. They were followed by colonials, pioneers, negroes, and modern soldiers and sailors.

The last costumes were those of the Longview High School band and pep squad.

Appropriate songs were sung for each group. The program was closed with the singing of "Dear Old Longview High School."

SENIOR HIGH STUDENTS TO GIVE "THE MIKADO"

One hundred and fifty students, under the direction of Miss Phyllis Brannon, are practicing daily on "The Mikado," an operetta written by Gilbert and Sullivan, to be presented on January 9 at the Junior High auditorium.

The hero's role has been assigned to Louis Guice, and Helen June Huff is the heroine. Comic parts are played by Norma Newsom and Lon Livsey. Other principal parts are assigned to Pauline Langhorne, Maude Lynette Norton, T. A. Scott, James Hinemen, and Tommie Anderson.

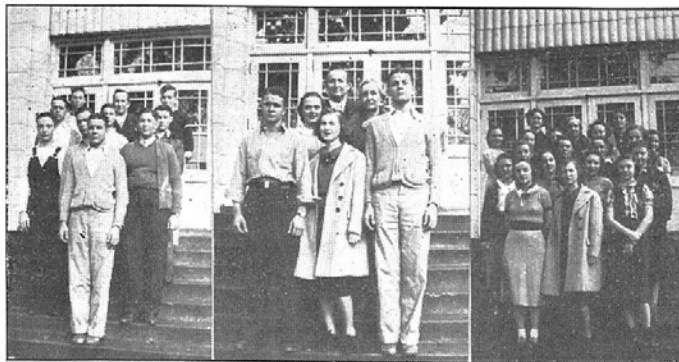

Annie Frances Bistline and Jaunita Newman will be pianists, and other instrumental numbers will be included.

Club Plans Future Homes

The Home Making Club members began planning future homes last Friday when they decorated Thanksgiving dinner tables, arranged flowers and furniture and decided what kinds of pictures are suitable for each room of a home.

Voted as this year's president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer were Mary Lee Abat, Iris Castleberry, and Lorene Miller.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS SCHOOL LEADERS

Members of Student Council Decide to Join National Association; Discuss Dance Plan

The decision to join the National Association of Student Officers was made by the members of the Student Council at their meeting Tuesday.

They also discussed the desirability of changing home room programs from Thursday to Monday to avoid the many interruptions that occur on Thursday.

The council is planning to have a dance for the students some night before the Christmas holidays.

Other aims of the Student Council this fall have been better conduct in the halls and in assemblies and better assembly programs.

$10 Given on $30 Project

A campaign to raise $30 for a spectroscope for the school was begun early in November by the Student Council. So far the various home rooms have contributed more than $10.

A spectroscope is an instrument through which two pictures of the same object or scene are viewed, one by each eye. The scene or picture then appears as one sees it, with a third dimension.

Citizens Give Fund For Launching of Student Project

Later Editions to Be Financed by Home Room Groups Club Contributions

As the first student newspaper in the history of Longview High, The Lobo appropriately makes its initial appearance today in a Thanksgiving issue.

The staff presents proudly this realization of a dream made to come true, because for many years students and faculty have expressed the desire for a student newspaper.

The Lobo has features of unique interest. To give the paper a chance to establish its place in the school program and to cultivate a large audience of devoted readers, the paper will be furnished free to each student this year. The publication will feature stories that reflect every phase of school activity.

Plans are under way by which students may take part in financing The Lobo as a home room or club activity.

According to A. V. Goynne, Jr., business manager of The Lobo, the launching of its publication would have been impossible without the encouragement and financial assistance of many friends of the school.

Those who contributed to the fund and to whom all students join in "Thanksgiving" are: M. Tracy Flanagan, T. J. Flewellyn, Edwin Lacy, Bruner Smith, $10.00; T. L. N. Rawlinson, $7.50; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pegues, $6.00; Gans' Men Store, Home Furniture Co., Martin's Ladies' Store, Sosland's Diamond Shop, Harrington and Harrington, $5.00.

Mrs. R. E. Rushing, Joe D. Riff, Rogers Lacy, Mrs. L. E. Brown, Mrs. J. J. Flewellyn, J. Marcus Wood, LeGrand Kelly, Mrs. Franklin Martin, Patsy Lacy, J. B. Bond, $5.00.

Others who contributed are: A. V. Grant, Longhorn Drug, M. L. Bath, Lewis Hart, Mack's Pharmacy, Gossett and Gossett, J. B. Hayden, Dr. P. V. Colvin.

Will C. Hurst, Lester Denson, W. O. Avery, Mrs. J. A. Pipsaire, Mrs. Fred Stuckey, Dush Shaw, Witt Nelson, Sid Henderson, Robert Wood,

NEW EQUIPMENT HELPS CHEMISTRY STUDENTS

Among the new purchases of the chemistry department this fall is a thermo-electric magnet which will hold up about 20 pounds by heating with a bunsen burner.

According to C. L. York, instructor, the students may also use the mercurial barometer to determine air pressure. An injecting set will aid in the preparing of better biological specimens.

A set of polaroids to detect flaws and test strains in glass was also acquired.

Lamps for the microscopes to be used when better light is needed is another benefit to the chemistry lab.

A collection of salt water fish has been furnished by C. A. Pipkin. York plans to have them prepared for exhibition.

A number of jars for preserving more specimens have also been recently purchased.

Have your copies of The Lobo bound into a beautiful book designed by professional artists.

THANKS A MILLION

At this season of Thanksgiving one's feeling of gratitude usually embraces his home, his health, and this peaceful, prosperous America, in which the Thanksgiving day custom originated.

However, the students of Longview High School do not have to go beyond the walls of this school to find something for which to give thanks.

Many things have been accomplished in this last year: the winning of the district nine championship last fall by the Lobos, the furnishing of the "dark room" through the tireless efforts of the Student Council, the printing of the beautiful Annual by the nineteenth-hundred thirty-seven senior class, the large number of trophies won by the band last Spring. Already this fall a large boys' pep squad has been organized, another grand football team is really going places, and now comes this, the first issue of THE LOBO.

These accomplishments should be a matter of pride to the students as they look forward together toward another year, hoping it will be as full of gratifying experiences.

Vocations Subject of Assembly Speech By Austin Educator, Rev. T. W. Currie

Reverend T. W. Currie, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Austin, Texas, addressed the student body on last Wednesday.

The subject of his address was "Vocational Education," in which he pointed out that education is given to fit a person to his times. He also extended an unofficial invitation to attend the Educational Conference in Holland in 1939.

The student body, led by Walon Wilson, spent the remainder of the assembly period in singing such old favorites as "Polly Wolly Doodle" and "Home on the Range."

Press Club Opens Year By Electing Officers

The Press Club opened this year's session by electing the following officers: Leon Mann, president and Mary Elizabeth Hill, secretary.

Future activities of the club are not clearly defined as yet; however, members will be in charge of the school paper.

New members were voted on, and the following 14 were elected: A. V. Goyne, Marvin Jordan, Margaret Ann Grizzle, Helen Hall, Jewel Harrington, Elizabeth Ann McHaney, Aubrey Perry, Kathryn Lacy, Louise Miller, Fannie Winn, Mary Julia Rineberger, Ruby Pipsaire, Patsy Lacy, Jane Wood.

Pan-Am Club Hears Talks

Members of the Pan American Club enjoyed talks given by Norma Anthony, Betty Chipman, and Claude Kennard at their meeting last week. The subjects discussed were: the Pan American Building in Washington, the Pan American Convention at Dallas, and the Spanish-American War.

The officers of the Pan American Club are: Norma Anthony, president; Garland Pegues, vice-president; Charles Sutton, secretary-treasurer, and Betty Chipman, reporter.

A social gathering of the club this fall was a steak fry given at Norma Anthony's home. Dancing, a cowboy show, and the midnight show were enjoyed by the members of the club on this occasion.

THE CAMPUS CAT

FLASH!!! We understand that the costly price of a bet to poor Billie Kathryn Ferguson, the loser, is a date with Carl Goodgame, the village cut-up.

Gladys Chaffin, it is reported, cannot hold a candle to her little sister. Few fail to see the biggest ears in the world (Mr. Gable, the honor is no longer yours) around the campus this year.

Watch B. N., the rising star of gossiping L. H. S. this year.

Anyone who is behooved to be desirous of finding the way to Mattie's Ballroom (now known as Club M<sup>o</sup>tte), consult N. N.

What did they want to buy for a certain male yell leader with a penny fund?

The dancer of the season is the well-known Robert Grimes (call him Bobby). To reveal his sinister nature, he has the habit of making anonymous phone calls (consult Coleen Grant).

We understand that Mr. Osburn has been requested many times to ride in a blue Packard, chauffeured by B. L. C.

Split-up of the week (or year, for that matter): a Lobo captain and his lady-love for these many years (a reconciliation is expected daily.)

What caused such laughter when the Dramatic Club united with the Radio Guild?

Latest triangle: Dorothea, Pluto, and Pat.

Why does Herschel Nance scream when "I'm sitting on it" is mentioned?

And what has it to do with one of last year's graduates? A yell leader, she was.

A certain baton twister had better watch out or she'll throw her back out of place.

Seen everywhere you look in the halls: Helen and Dick, Jack and Kathryn.

They're that way: Ruby and Sully. Watch Newman blush and race for a piano when asked to play.

Wearer of the shortest dresses in school: Frances Chumley.

Mixed up in many a triangle: Butch McDonald.

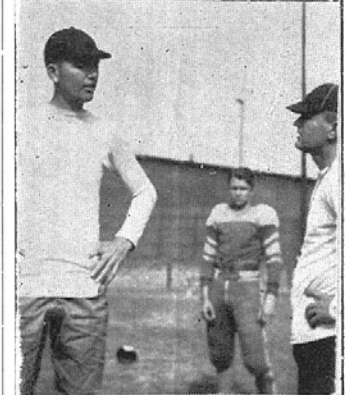

P. Bess Crawford is torn between two lovers. Never mind, Bessie, I'm always around.

Unzizzling romance: Patsy and Marvin.

"Swine" Marion and Zearl look bored as Royce drops his "pearls" before them. Tsk, tsk, M. and Z., don't you appreciate wisdom?

5 New Members Join High School Teaching Staff

Profs. Impressed by Faculty,
Strong School Spirit
Student Council

"New Faces of 1937" at Longview High include five new instructors in various departments.

The dignified, blue-eyed instructor in Chaucerian and other mysteries of English literature is Miss Ruth Hilliard, who was born in Lockhart and has taught in Luling. She graduated from the University of Texas. Miss Hilliard is most surprised to find one or two football players who will work without being forced to. This sets some sort of precedent in her career.

The dark young man who sports a moustache is Alan Pipkin, who struggles with the biology students. He was born in San Antonio, and has obtained his Master's Degree from the University of Texas. Pipkin feels that the fine school spirit of Longview High is its greatest asset.

Longview's own daughter is the brunette teacher of home economics and English, Miss Mary Walke. She attended Mary Hardin-Baylor and Sam Houston State Teacher's college, and has taught in Slocum. Miss Walke is impressed by the work of the Student Council.

Sinton, Texas, is the home of our diplomatic band director, Fred Martin. A graduate of A. & M., Martin has been band director in Marshall and Rusk. He solemnly stated that the fine faculty has impressed him most.

The new, smiling librarian is diminutive Miss Alice Per Lee, who hails from Peoria, Illinois. She attended William Jewell college at Liberty, Missouri, and has taught in Gilbert, Louisiana.

Miss Elizabeth Karle, librarian at the beginning of the year, resigned early this month to become a librarian in a public library in Corpus Christi.

Pep Squad Sells Souvenirs

To boost its treasury and add a collegiate air to football games, the Pep Squad has sponsored the sale of stickers and attractive green and white yarn dolls as Lobo souvenirs at recent football games.

This year's yell leaders of the squad, which numbers 102, are: Garland Pegues, Sue Jean Daly, Evelyn Bivins, Raymond Hatchell, Frank Slade and Jimmy Layton.

A day of Thanksgiving is not new, for it was a custom celebrated by all European peoples before being introduced into America.

About 1610 a small group of people left England and went to Holland. After ten years in Holland, they decided to cross the vast Atlantic for America, and on December 21, 1620, 102 of the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock.

Nearly one-half of the group lost their lives that first terrible winter; the others endured many hardships. Homes had to be constructed, food sought. There was a constant fear of Indian raids. This period of trial and struggle earns for the Pilgrims the red badge of courage. So joyous were these hardy people at the end of their first winter that a general Thanksgiving was declared.

Should we, too, not begin now to make plans for a real day of thanks this year? Human beings now to worked and struggled to give us our homes, schools, churches, communities, and every good gift of our lives.

Let us, too, pause and with our friends and families, give thanks for life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

H. L. FOSTER.

STUDENTS WANT RADIO; GET WASHING MACHINE

Is a certain junior home room starting already to earn money for the Junior-Senior banquet? Maybe this home room has some Chinese ancestors.

To everyone's bewilderment Walon Wilson's home room had in its possession a washing machine which it bought at the "Buck" money auction in October.

The unaccountable washer was bought by the foresighted group, who intended from the beginning to get a radio. The class held several successful auctions in the gym and the "buck" money obtained was used to buy the washer.

With true business acumen, the group investigated trade-in values, made a deal with a local company to secure a sizeable discount, and now has, to furnish it with many hour's entertainment, a $69.50 True-tone radio.

It is a great pleasure to greet the student body of the Longview High School through the medium of its own paper. It is my hope that from this beginning will grow the best school paper in East Texas. It seems to me that the paper is the best agency for securing the cooperative effort of everyone on an educational project.

I want this to be the means of conveying to the teachers and students my wishes for a happy and eventful Thanksgiving. Let us not forget to be grateful for the blessing of school, home, and community.

R. L. SPEIGHT

Latin Club Elects Officers For Year

Hatchell will be assisted during the ensuing year by the following officers: Leon Mann, Wilma Miller, Frank Slade, Bobby Johnson, Miriam Moyer, and Jacquelyn Hurst.

The club has 33 members and has held three meetings. It has given one program of Latin songs and a puzzle game of "Hidden Gods and Goddesses" was played at the last meeting.

Miss Hope Pool is the sponsor of the club.

CLASS MEETINGS HELD TO VOTE ON OFFICERS

Frank LeBus will lead the senior class this year as a result of class elections held November 1. The juniors elected Jimmy Layton and the sophomores chose Boots Carter.

The senior class, sponsored by Miss Ruth Hilliard, selected Jack McMahon as vice-president, Claire Smith as secretary, and A. V. Goyne as reporter.

Those serving for the sophomores are Eleanor Rhea LeBus, vice-president, and Maude Lynette Norton, secretary and treasurer. Miss Julia Hyman and Miss Mary Walke are the sponsors.

Officers Elected By Home Rooms of 1937-38 Year

Seniors Elect As Presidents
LeBus, Daniel, Pegues,
Rushing, Rodden

Selected as senior home room class presidents, Frank LeBus, Ralph Rushing, Chal Daniel, Jasper Rodden, and Garland Pegues will serve for their last year in Longview High School.

To substitute in case of a president's absence, Frank Rea, Bill Pouncey, Lucille Campbell, Royce Skinner, and Harry Whitney were selected for vice-presidents by the same group.

Sisters Present Duet For Girls' Lobo Club

A duet presented by Virgie and Lillie Mae Odom was the feature number on the program for the Girls' Lobo Club Friday, November 5.

Others who were presented on the program were: Doris Warwick, tap dance; Lena and Ollie Mae Jones, duet; and readings by Mildred Terry and Lucille Smith.

At a previous meeting held October 8, the new officers were installed. They were Virgie Odom, president; Mary Frances Oney, vice president; and Dorris East, Secretary.

CLUB SELECTS OFFICERS; CONTINUE POSTER WORK

The colorful posters in the halls last week advertising the annual were the work of the Art club members, under the direction of Miss Jane Etheridge.

They have done many worthwhile things already this year, among them a cardboard door and some posters for the public library, some signs for Miss Harris' classes, and a thermometer poster for the paper.

Lobos Doped to Beat Gladewater

Shotwell's Team Risks Undefeated And Untied Record

Forrest Lee, Grizzly Back, Is Expected to Give Lobos Greatest Trouble

Each playing their last scheduled game, the Gladewater Bears and the Longview Lobos battle for grid honors tomorrow.

The Lobos will start the game overwhelming favorites to cinch undisputed possession of district 9 crown. By virtue of a win over Marshall last Friday, Coach P. E. Shotwell's charges were assured of at least a tie.

Coach Jake Hanna's outfit are primed for this game. They had rather knock the Wolves from the undefeated and untied rank than anything else. The Lobos are marked.

Expected to give the Lobos most trouble is Forrest Lee, Gladewater back. In the Pine Bluff game last Friday he made many gains through the opponent's line. A fast back, Lee makes most of his yardage through tackles.

It is very doubtful, though, if the Bears can penetrate the Lobo line of Daniels, Brannon, Sullivan, and Richardson.

It will be best if Gladewater doesn't concentrate on D. Miller. Marshall did and who showed up?—Otto Paul Burandt.

All in all, it looks much as though the Lobos have at least two more games to play, Gladewater and Lufkin.

PLAYS GIVEN AS HOME ROOMS VIE FOR HONORS

In an effort to make this year outstanding in assembly programs, entertaining plays have been presented by three home rooms.

Frank Slade, Frank Rhea, Frank LeBus, Gene Richardson, Louise Miller, and Claire Smith were characters in the mixed up comedy about a diamond ring lost in a tractor presented by Miss Gertrude Curran's home room.

A brief dramatic skit presented by Miss Jane Etheridge's home room was in costume and featured Margaret Rumbaugh, Maxine Leshe, Dorothy Ulin, and Wylie Harper. Two piano solos by Phyllis Brannon, accompanied by Miss Grace Mays, concluded the program.

Jim Lewis Carter's orchestra, with its featured singers, Patti Crawford, La Nelle Johnson, and Frances Pulin, made a big hit even after the students discovered that the hot music was from a victrola and the singers and the orchestra players were only going through the motions.

Other offerings on the program were a cornet solo by Bobby Daniels, a vocal solo by Ernestine Ashworth, a tap dance and song by Betty Jean Flannery, accompanied on the piano by her mother, and a piano solo by Ann King.

Conference Standing of District 9

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Longview	4	0	1.000
Marshall	3	1	.750
Tyler	3	1	.750
Kilgore	2	3	.400
Gladewater	1	3	.250
Texarkana	0	5	.000

LOBO TRACK MEN TRAIN DAILY FOR '38 SEASON

Seven boys have begun training for the 1938 track season and work out regularly at the football stadium. These include Malcolm Bolton, Collicie Heim, Donley Kennard, Gordon Kent, Jasper Rodden, Alt'sis Sheffield and Jimmy Vogel.

This year's team will be built around three returning lettermen: G. D. Wilson, Malcolm Blackwell and Jasper Rodden.

Rodden has lettered two years, winning second in the county meet, third in the district and ran in the regional last year.

Wilson and Blackwell, as well as several more boys, are expected to report after the football season is concluded.

Coach Shotwell announced that a truck would be at the east end of the building after the seventh period each day to take boys interested in track to the stadium. He urged any boy who expects to try out for the team to start training now.

Boys Yell At Lobo Games

An innovation this year that seeks to demonstrate an enthusiastic Lobo spirit has been the appearance of a green shirted boys' pep squad at several football games.

The boys have been admitted free to most of the games. They sit with the girls but do not march on the field.

The "Leather Lungs" elected Jim-

Boys Practice Daily As '38 Season Opens

Getting ready to swing into basketball as soon as the football season ends, ten prospective lettermen have been practicing for eight weeks getting in shape for this season's games.

The boys are in fine shape and will give their opponents a hard run. Harold Buchanan, Ross Chapin, Silas Winkler, and Malcolm Bolton seem to be in especially fine condition. On field goals Buchanan is at his best while Chapin and Winkler are fine as a passing combination.

Lobo Club Busy at Games Selling Drinks, Peanuts

Some of the busiest people at recent football games have been the high school boys selling cold drinks, peanuts and cushions. This is one of the many activities carried on by the L club.

The club receives a 5 per cent commission which helps to buy films for the new moving picture projector recently presented them by the business men of Longview. The rest of their profit goes for buying sweaters and awards for the lettermen.

The boy yell leaders, Raymond Hatchell, Jimmie Layton and Frank Slade, serve as the board of directors for the squad.

WHEN LOBO MET LION

Top, left, is a view of the crowded stands showing the Tyler pep squad and band, which gave a precision drill between the halves. Top right, a distance shot shows the expanse of automobiles which brought the crowds to the game. Bottom left and right are views of the two plays in the tilt which ended with Longview on the long end of a 27-7 score.

Longview Subdues Marshall Maverick Club By Score, 19-6

Otto Paul Burandt Catches Two Touchdown Passes From Lobo Backs

Coach P. E. Shotwell's Lobos were one step nearer the district championship after having defeated the strong Marshall Mavericks last Friday, 19-6.

The Lobos' first score came in the first quarter by a pass from LeBus to Burandt. Cantrell converted. Another pass, Cantrell to Burandt, accounted for the second touchdown in the second quarter.

Early in the third period, D. Miller intercepted a pass on his own 5 yard line and galoped the remaining 95 for a score, the most sensational play of the game.

No doubt the score would have been more lop-sided had it not been for the fine punting of Eugene Woods, Maverick halfback. The mainstay of the Maverick offense was Jack Tittle, hefty 180 pound quarterback. His running, Wood's punting, and Captain Jelly Whitehurst's sure tackling were the outstanding features of the Mavericks.

Marshall scored mid-way in the fourth quarter by a blocked punt on the 15 yard line of the Lobos.

R. L. SPEIGHT PORTRAYS MAIN CHARACTER IN SKIT

The plays were Bette Jeane Thompson, Dorothy Jane Rawlinson, Chal Daniel, and Royce Skinner, who took the parts of students interviewing the famous man to get a story for their school paper.

The Guild plans in the future to give programs once a week in assembly, to be broadcast over KFRO. The next skit to be presented is to be a negro minstrel.

New Uniforms Dress Band; Members Get Music Tickets

Uniforms ordered some time ago arrived Monday, November 8, and the band appeared in full uniform at the Armistice Day game.

To four of the band members were presented tickets for the Civic Music association program November 16, offered by prominent citizens. Those who received them were: Grant Donaldson, F. M. Bradshaw, Louis Richardson and Billy Holt, all selected by the band members who considered their work deserving.
