Sponsor Advertising Contract

The goal of the Longview Lady Lobo Basketball Booster Club is to help fund the program's basketball equipment and supply needs as well as travel and activity expenses, all while promoting and supporting our dedicated Lady Lobo's athletic high school experience. To accomplish this goal, the program needs community support and additional funding.

The basketball program proudly offers sponsors an opportunity to support the program and advertise their businesses inside the Lobo Coliseum for one year at all athletic contests and events held there.

All 3x5 signs will be provided in a style agreed upon with sponsors. Sponsors will provide the correct text and logos for the signage. Sponsors who wish may provide their own sign.

In addition to advertising signage, a sponsorship includes the announcement of the sponsor a minimum of three times during all home girls' basketball games and the distribution of printed materials or fan gear supplied by the sponsors to fans who attend the game.

Cost of advertisement is $500 annually and may be renewed.
